

LIBRA 2013 NEWSLETTER
Compliments of
Alice DeVille

Fall begins with the dates covered in this month's newsletter. Many regions of North America boast that October is the most colorful month of all. Crisp days and cool nights synchronize with autumn's gorgeous landscape. Multi-color chrysanthemums dot the gardens; pumpkins decorate lawns and porches; and harvested apples appear in recipes for cakes, pies and beverages - perfect for fall festivities. Our birthday celebrant is Libra the sign that gives hospitality a good name and joins the most avid party goers in celebrating life. Libras cherish sociable gatherings. Seeking inner harmony they often change career paths and look with sensitivity for vibes in the workplace that value their contribution to organizational goals.

CYBERSECURITY: In this cycle the "breachers" are informing you about the prison records uncovered on you or your neighbors, people close to you and notable figures. Other security issues include fake job offers and links that seem to come from known individuals; some have odd yet engaging captions designed to hook you in; check to be sure before opening. Contact connections directly when in doubt. Do the same if one of your credit card companies sends you a security warning - don't click on the link. Be on the lookout for phony charity scams and links that suggest you are applying for either a low cost mortgage or are reducing your mortgage payment. You'll find the sender is probably phishing for information about you. Fake messages are also coming from scammers pretending to be your ISP and asking you to update your contact information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: As I have previously mentioned, my website is available to you at www.astrologyondemand.com if you would like to review newsletters or blogs. A good amount of information is located there for your use. I will be adding new blog features in the coming months. Reach me on Twitter@AstroOnDemand. The winner of August's client drawing was JD who received a $10 gift certificate good toward a future session; the winner of the September drawing will also receive this award.

LIBRA'S BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Happy Birthday, Libra! You put great value on relationships and collect an abundance of them during your lifetime. The significance of your partnership-oriented air Sun Sign is that it rules the 7th House of romantic, business, and professional connections, roommates, the public in general, advisors, counselors, diplomats, professionals, and your shadow self. Venus rules your sign and many of you find yourselves occupied in careers that call for warmth and tact in your communication style, provide service to clients and customers, or show a knack for organizing social events. Most of you are big Internet or Web communicators, networkers, Facebook fans or LinkedIn subscribers and if you aren't, you probably talk a lot on the phone or with daily contacts. Critics say you forget to listen especially if you don't like the message. Many Libras show creativity via arts, crafts, and decorating; compete in sports or take up dancing. Indecisiveness or procrastination may get in the way of your plans and you wonder where the time goes. Those of you with earth sign ascendants or Moons in your planetary lineup won't have this distraction. Most of you like routines that keep you on track and prefer a predictable work schedule. Libra rules the kidneys, pancreas, lower back and urethra. This year the Sun enters your sign on September 22 at 4:44 PM EDT and leaves on October 23 at 2:10 AM EDT.

Your birthday year starts out with Jupiter in Cancer in your solar 10th house of career, status in life, family members and matters related to them, authority figures, ambition, extra responsibility, and networks you enjoy. This period could be very newsworthy as you learn details about pending plans involving your family. Some may change their marital status, sell a home, undergo surgery, or gain from new employment opportunities. Saturn in Scorpio in your solar 2nd House of income and financial or material resources was in close contact through September if born September 27 through October 4; those born October 5 through 13 are most affected through the latter half of 2013 and again in 2014. Most Libras born during these dates will only have the aspects for about 2 weeks through the end of the year but get ready for more action the early part of next year. Then those born October 14 through the end of the sign will be developing new plans for travel, household expenditures, resource allocation, discussions with partners over funds, and how to use a new bonus; some work on estate matters and review wills. Many of you will find your financial resources shifting or you will be making changes in how you spend your money. Avoid those who try to put you on a guilt trip because you take responsibility very seriously; it is shifting. Many of you will be planting the seeds for a new career or a job venture; you may be helping others figure out their finances or make important decisions on life, budget and reality. Take a good look at household goods and sell or give away what you no longer need; review insurance policies for coverage and add or subtract liability as you see fit. This Saturn contact emphasizes what you value most in life and how to manage expectations. Uranus in Aries contacts the solar 7th House of Libras born September 27-October 6 during 2013 and triggers changes related to partners, relationships, cooperative ventures, roommates, the public, and professionals such as advisors, doctors, healers, advisors, and attorneys. Certain relationships go through upheavals and you could feel differently about the emerging dynamics. You may easily feel that others are changing but you are just as much the one who sees how the differences in behavior or outlook affect dynamics. During 2014 those born October 1-11 feel the opposition of Uranus intensely and between reversals of decisions, changes in plans, quirky behavior on the part of you or others, the year will seem unsettled or full of surprises. Eligible Libras could experience sudden romance that comes in and out all year; could meet a variety of contacts that are really in your life to give you spiritual messages that help you grow. If romance does become intense and lights up your 7th House of partners, be sure you give it time to be sure it is right for you. I have worked with many individuals during these intense Uranus cycles who find the energy erratic, dramatic and a bit chaotic. Neptune in Pisces contacts your Libra Sun in 2013 if you are born September 23-27; in 2014 Neptune affects Libras born September 26-October 2 in your solar 6th House of work, health, daily environment, pets, schedules, and nutrition. You could feel that you no longer fit the job you have, the daily grind is boring, your health could be better, diagnoses could be off, people in your inner circle may not be sharing vital information or hidden agendas come to light. On a positive note, wherever you find Neptune you find intuition and spiritual attunement that bring greater harmony and those "aha" moments. If you are dealing with odd work or health problems be sure to keep good records and document important information that comes to light. Pluto in Capricorn in your solar 4th House of parents, home, family, base of operation, domestic affairs, real estate and home improvement matters resonates strongly with Libras born October 1-5 in 2013 and Libras born October 3-8 in 2014. As a member of a Cardinal sign you feel the vibes strongly as will Cancer, Aries and Capricorn in terms of these themes. Transformation is the word of the day - living spaces, family dynamics, property care and real estate matters may dominate. Check on weather trends and be sure to review policy coverage and make needed changes throughout your birthday cycle. Many of you will get deeply in touch with your feelings - that's what Pluto helps to uncover - and could facilitate the need to make critical decisions. Life can be demanding for family members as well. Pluto clashes again with Uranus in 2014 as it has done since 2011. You do well with maintaining objectivity and will be involved in analyzing home and family related scenarios. Pluto loves to play a role in regenerating your home, so give your décor a boost in a meaningful way.

Eclipses last from 6 months to a year - they take time to develop their influence and can influence your actions for months. I am covering the five 2013 eclipses in this section and the first two that take place in April of 2014. Sometimes you get a feel for what eclipses can do in your chart weeks before they take place. The three 2013 eclipses that occurred in April (Full Moon in Scorpio on April 25 in your 2nd House of income, resources and self-development) and (May 9 in Taurus in your 8th House of debt and joint holdings and May 25 in Sagittarius in your 3rd house of communications, education and transportation) are still affecting your chart. The May 25 lunar eclipse in Sagittarius relates to your neighborhood, siblings, cousins, local travel, education, mental outlook, communication or transportation and asks a lot of you regarding plans, preparation, absorbing information that you need to complete contracts or agreements, work projects, or applications of all types. Be flexible if planning for events that occur through October 18 - they are subject to change. A Full Moon eclipse occurs on October 18 in Aries in your 7th House and collaborates with transiting Uranus in your partnership realm; and another Scorpio eclipse occurs on November 3 in your 2nd house of income and will stay in aspect until April 29, 2014. With both money houses affected, finances will be important throughout your birthday cycle. You will reassess savings, budget and purchases over the next several months. Classes in financial or retirement planning could be important to you. News from siblings or other relatives dominates the landscape with the Sagittarius eclipse falling in your 3rd House and could mean visits, moves, and stepped up discussions; others could be busy with neighborhood commitments; many Libras purchase a vehicle from May 25-October 18. The October 18 eclipse in your 7th House reinforces the themes of partnerships, new connections, romance, cooperative decisions, social activity and taking a deep breath to evaluate the new beginnings. The influence of this eclipse lasts until April 15 when a lunar eclipse occurs in your 1st House of personal identification and action in Libra and affects those of you born October 17-19 and individuals born around those dates in April, July, and January. The final 2013 eclipse on November 3 is a total solar eclipse and will be visible in some parts of North America. Once again the cycles involve money, purchases, wills, inheritances, lawsuits, mortgages and investments as outlined above. Your neighborhood could make the news or how you contribute to it could bring recognition. Enjoy! This section may also apply if your Ascendant is in Libra.

SEPTEMBER 22-OCTOBER 23 PLANETS

Almost every week I receive mail about the chaos in government, disagreements in Congress, spending and debt ceiling deficiencies; opposers of the affordable health care package that received voter support in November 2012; and the violence and death that continue to plague U.S. communities such as last week's Washington Navy Yard tragedy. Those of you who follow this newsletter know these topics have been addressed several times. As I get ready to send you this newsletter, Congress is still at odds; the House sent a budget that funds the government through December 15, 2013 as long as it revokes "Obama care" and the Senate will oppose it just as surely as the President will veto the House initiative. The Middle East remains a hot bed of disagreement. The U.S. is about to receive a visit from, Iran's President Hassan Rouhani who replaced Mahmoud Ahmadinejad on August 4 and wishes to improve ties with the West. Rouhani, a Scorpio born November 12 meets with the U.N. General Assembly in order to set the right tone for further nuclear talks with world powers. He hopes these discussions will bring relief from sanctions, according to diplomats and analysts, which will cut him some slack over Iran's right to enrich uranium supplies. The new Iranian president said that Tehran was ready for negotiations with Western powers provided they set no pre-conditions. Insiders suggest that possibly Obama and Rouhani could meet on the sidelines of the U.N. meeting; a U.S. official has privately acknowledged the administration's desire to engineer a handshake between the two leaders, which would be the highest-level U.S.-Iranian contact since the 1979 Islamic Revolution. The new Moon on October 4 opposes Iran's Aries Sun and with Uranus in Aries and Pluto in Capricorn this country will be prominently in the news through the first half of 2014. Both President Obama's and Vice President Biden's charts will receive strong impact from the upcoming eclipses involving finances, secrets, health, volatile issues and impending deals. Keep your ear to the news.

As we begin this Sun in Libra report Chiron is still retrograde in Pisces all through the end of the cycle and most affects those born February 29-March 2 who have a chance to heal deeply when they confront deep fear and embrace their courage. Get to the why; cooperate and you succeed. Enjoy the relief that follows. Mars in Leo favors fire signs until it moves to Virgo on October 15 and paves the way for greater organization, execution of plans and desired travel; it also activates disagreements over education choices and standards or spending habits. To maintain harmony tweak your position on a sticky point. People with planets in Aries, Leo, or Sagittarius might take advantage of this first half of the cycle for greater accomplishment; ditto the air signs Gemini, Libra and Aquarius; the October dates favor earth and water signs. Mercury starts out in Libra and moves to Scorpio on September 30 for the rest of the Libra Sun time. Then Mercury turns retrograde at 6:29 AM on October 21 at 18 degrees and goes direct on November 10 at 4:12 PM EST at 2 degrees, so we will experience a long time in the sign of Scorpio that extends through December 24. Use caution in signing documents during the Mercury retrograde period which is much more favorable for cleaning up old projects, researching plans and interests, and cleaning out closets. Jupiter resides in Cancer through July 16, 2014 and favorably affects Cancers born July 7-12 as well as Pisces, Scorpio, Virgo, Taurus and Capricorn born around the 17th to 20th degree of their sun sign. Before Mercury goes retrograde the cycle favors buying big ticket items and concluding important deals. Spend time on financial planning, focus on your career or emerging dynamics in your life; look for solutions to chronic health matters and seek new opinions if you are not satisfied; release your fears about taking action. Jupiter works harmoniously with Venus from the 26-29th of September, favors communication, gatherings, and government activity. Stay away from no-win arguments and look for diplomatic solutions. Saturn is in Scorpio and most affects Scorpions born October 31- November 4; suggesting that you attend to any routine physical exams, seasonal shots, and pending medical tests before November 3 when an eclipse occurs around this degree. Responsibilities are changing for many Scorpions in the work place and at home especially during September through November; understand the cues you receive about the nature of evolving dynamics; study new information before acting and seek advice. Saturn connects closely to the Moon's North Node in Scorpio during this cycle since Saturn will conjoin the November 3 eclipse degree. Uranus in Aries visits the Sun of those born March 30-April 1 when it connects with you in retrograde motion. Everyone, especially the cardinal signs should check your chart for planets in aspect to 9-10 degrees of Aries for areas of volatility. From October 1-October 23 Uranus opposes the Sun and creates challenges with Pluto in Capricorn. Although the aspect may shake up your surroundings and give you a wakeup call do your homework before making drastic life changes; develop realistic plans for your future; take deep breaths. Globally the aspect could trigger additional dictatorial behavior through October 21; individuals affected by these degrees may want to avoid court appearances, engaging in lawsuits, or confronting authority figures. The benefit is that Uranus/Pluto clashes favor breaking down faulty thinking, stubbornness and inner barriers; a bit of wise counsel goes a long way; perfect time to see an advisor for some. Neptune resides in Pisces in retrograde motion at 3/2 degrees through the end of this cycle and affects individuals born February 19-22. Look at your chart - wherever you have these Pisces degrees that part of your life is in a holding pattern; take a critical look at matters connected with the house. Those with water sign ascendants around 3 degrees or the Sun at 2/3 degrees (Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces) receive inspiration via memory and spiritual forces. Take a close and objective look at what is going on so you can see a situation for what is really occurring. Gain perspective by consulting with qualified professionals for options to resolve dilemmas and plan for the future. Pluto turned direct in motion in Capricorn on September 20 at 11:29 AM EDT on the Suns of Capricorns born December 28-30. The rest of us should look at any planets or houses where we have 8 degrees of Capricorn. When Pluto makes contact you get subtle hints that turn into strong clues that current conditions are shifting since the same degrees have been exposed over the past year. If you don't take action, the outcome may be out of your control. Globally we could see evidence that forced change in practices may not be the way to go. Instead go with the flow.

LUNAR/SOLAR CYCLES LATE SEPTEMBER THROUGH OCTOBER

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

As I noted in the write-up under the September-October section the impact of the Uranus-Pluto dynamic is on tap for at least two more years so that we can expect that the current makeup of Congress is going to continue manifesting gridlock with every critical issue they meet. Not only do the parties refuse to budge but factions within the parties seem unwilling to look at the possibilities for getting the country back on track. Leaders seem powerless to get positive results, internal support and a happy constituency. Political questions continue to dominate the landscape. As I write this section, the battle is on regarding raising the debt ceiling and adapting the Affordable Health Care Act; the House and Senate are at odds; and the headline making government shutdown is looming. Send positive thoughts.

Readers have asked about the charts of numerous celebrities in the news, among them are Simon Cowell, Gwyneth Paltrow, Miley Cyrus, Bashar-al-Assad and Diana Nyad. Here is the current insight. I covered the charts of the first three celebrities in previous newsletters although with different emphasis.

Simon Cowell was born in Brighton, UK, in 1959, a Libra. Readers want to know what aspects in his chart brought about first-time fatherhood after an affair with the soon-to-be ex-wife of one of his business associates. Information about the pregnancy was most likely revealed to him in May when the Sagittarius eclipse landed on Ceres and made harsh aspect to his natal Venus/Pluto conjunction in Virgo while opposed to natal Dark Moon Lilith in Gemini in his solar 8th house of sexual encounters. Ceres represents mother figures, nurturing qualities and often pregnancy; Venus with Pluto involved the secret affair with Mrs. Silverman, and the opposition to Lilith is the sudden exposure of the circumstances to her husband and the press. Many facets of Simon's chart show a secretive tendency and desire to control the flow of information.

Miley Cyrus, a Sagittarius, recently made the news for giving a controversial performance labeled "twerking" at the MTV Video Music Awards and grabbed the attention of several newsletter readers. We covered her chart a few years ago when she was breaking away from her role as Hannah Montana. I noted that Pluto in Capricorn is making aspect to both natal Pallas and Venus and next year to Uranus in Capricorn which can be about image change, sexuality and style and eccentric behavior that will increase with the intense relationship to transiting Uranus in Aries. Natal Saturn in Aquarius at the top of her chart/Midheaven and on natal Ceres show the bond she has with her father, Billy Ray, the defender of her comment-provoking performance. Their Suns are in harsh aspect to one another and he probably knows his daughter is going to do her own thing and won't level outward criticism. The current Uranus hit also explains the recent break-up with her fiancé, Liam Hemsworth. Rumor has it that she is already dating the producer of her MTV performance. Stay tuned.

Libra Gwyneth Paltrow, named the World's Most Beautiful Woman in 2013, is making headlines now as she promos her current movie, "Thanks for Sharing" in which she plays the girlfriend of a sex addict (Mark Ruffalo). Her 8th House of sex, birth, death and regeneration contains Scorpio placements and the fixed sign eclipses have been giving them a workout. Her 9th House cusp of foreign events, publishing and travel received an eclipse conjunction last November giving her publicity in the press, in publication of her cookbook and in the world of entertainment in the US and abroad. Both the upcoming October eclipse in Aries and the November eclipse in Scorpio should bring more attention to her activities. She was born with 5 Libra placements that are currently opposed by transiting Uranus in Aries and in strong aspect to transiting Pluto in Capricorn. Keep your eye on the Red Carpet and other announcements from Gwyneth in the coming year as transiting Neptune in Pisces crosses her Ascendant.

Diana Nyad is a 64-year-old Leo born in NYC with a stellium of Leo planets. Her chart shows placements that are often typical of an athlete with very strong legs and abundant stamina. She practices, visualizes and puts her mind to her achievements - she made five attempts to swim from Havana to Key West and finally made it. She was born at the 29th degree of Leo which is the degree of the fixed star, Regulus, a destiny making point that often appears in the charts of famous individuals. Diana made it this time aided by the planet of strength and energy, Mars that progressed to the exact degree of her Sun in Leo. How beautifully this achievement matches the determination and will she has to overcome a painful childhood and show that strength prevails over adversity. Congratulations on a job well done!

Bashar al-Assad is the President of Syria, General Secretary of the Ba'ath Party and Regional Secretary of the party's branch in Syria. He has been in and out of the news for the past few years over the civil war in Syria, Arab Spring, the use of chemical weapons on his own people and perceived threats to countries in the region where disagreements and violence flare up with little warning. Assad was born in Damascus and turned 48 on September 11. Trained as a physician and aspiring to be an ophthalmologist, this Virgo wanted little to do with the military until his father asked him to step into the role of his brother Bassel who was killed in a car accident in 2000.

His chart shows that over the last few years many of his planets were ignited by the mutable eclipses in Gemini and Sagittarius; as recently as May natal Mercury (how the mind works) received a jolt and most likely influenced his strike on his own people. In the next few months both Venus (females, love, emotions, values) in Libra and Mars (war, conflict, passion) will be affected by the October and November eclipses in Aries and Scorpio. Let's hope that pressure from neighboring countries may mitigate the humanitarian atrocities that come about when refugees flee unsavory living conditions and cross borders on a routine basis to find a safer, if temporary haven. Most of the world is keeping an eye on his recent liaison with Russia's Putin.

READERS' CORNER

I receive several questions a month regarding relationships, one of the most popular themes of all time. Individuals ask about connections with significant others, spouses, family members, bosses, co-workers, friends, medical and advisory professionals, and roommates. Here are a few that fit this month's Sun Sign theme.

Q. I share a condo with a friend I have known since college. We moved in together almost two years ago after meeting at a business conference and renewing our friendship. I purchased the condo and she pays me rent. We agreed to share tasks and all went well until spring when I noticed she no longer did any of the cleaning, often let her dirty dishes pile up in the sink instead of loading the dishwasher and broke several agreements we had regarding use of the laundry room, an agreed upon schedule, and stocking supplies. We used to share meals 3-4 times a week but no longer do. I am angry that she is ignoring what we said we would do and I resent cleaning up after her; she never says anything and seems to be avoiding communicating with me. The rental agreement expires in December and she has the option to renew but I am having second thoughts. What do you think is going on astrologically and why did she change so much? I am a Libra born October 17 and she is Capricorn born January 4.

A. The first thing that comes to mind with your birthdays is the Cardinal sign edginess between your Sun signs and the fact that you will experience an eclipse around your birthday and she is experiencing a conjunction of Pluto on the Sun which does not happen in every individual's lifetime. I think you both want change but for different reasons and that incompatibilities exist that both of you are ignoring. Have you asked your friend how things are going in her life? Have you discussed the changes you have noticed in how she is no longer honoring agreements? Probably not! Libra doesn't like to initiate a conflict, but after all, you are the landlady. Your roommate appears to be disengaging from these arrangements and will probably say something to you about not wanting to renew the lease before too long - around mid-October when the eclipse connects with both Mercury and the Sun in your chart and Mercury in Capricorn in hers. That alone can lead to a severing of a plan, agreement or relationship; then information that comes to light needs to be resolved. Why not be proactive and find out what you can before the eclipse so that both of you can feel relaxed about making other arrangements and letting each other go without holding a grudge.

Q. I was attending an all-day staff meeting that included the 17 members of our team and my boss, a Libra. As we were returning to the meeting room after the first morning break one of the women started criticizing the man I am dating out of the blue (I was already seated at the conference table). I was shocked but did not want to engage her in an argument while everyone was trickling back into the room. That did not stop her though from continuing and from asking me personal questions about how long I have known him and how well. Soon the room was silent and everyone was absorbed in the conversation/accusations for several minutes - way too long. My boss was running the meeting and did not stop her outrageous comments; finally he asked the scheduled presenter to begin. At the lunch break he advised me to drop the discussion with her and to let it go. I thought he was being a wimp and have noted that he often ignores problems in the group. Is that because he is a Libra? What should I have done?

A. Your co-worker was out of line when she shared her negative opinion of the individual you are dating in front of other colleagues and your boss. By making the unkind statements you describe in a work setting she showed a lack of professionalism and disrupted the meeting as attendees returned from break. Although your boss was probably trying to prevent the discussion from getting heated, he actually gave her more room to continue by not redirecting the meeting flow back to the agenda. He could have politely requested that she table the subject rather than let her go on with her critique. I hope he said something to her in private about how awkward her discussion appeared. To suggest afterward that you just let it go is a huge mistake because this woman will do it again. As for how you could have handled the disruption at the time it took place, you could have spoken up and told her you found her comments offensive and moved on. By all means approach her privately and let her know that her public remarks were unkind. Yes, it is true that many Libra bosses dislike conflict but this uncomfortable scenario called for leadership not accommodation of a discussion that was in poor taste. While not big fans of conflict, many Libras are excellent negotiators and often mediators. Maybe your boss was surprised by the ongoing discussion when he returned to the room and suffered from a bit of brain freeze. You could revisit the topic with him privately and let him know how it affected you - but don't schedule a meeting on the day of the eclipse!

Thank you to all who sent questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed Virgo's issue and welcome your feedback once again.
