GEMINI and THE YEAR AHEAD

Happy Birthday, Gemini! Your Sun Sign rules the communication-oriented 3rd House of cousins and other relatives including siblings, neighbors, classes, communities, education, transportation (all forms including purchasing and repairing of vehicles), media interests and communications vehicles (phones, computers, faxes, Internet, social networks), writing and your mind, especially how it works and the impact on your mental state. This section of the chart describes your intellect and how you converse with others or form creative relationships. The house is ruled by Mercury and Gemini's symbol is the Twins; you are both an air sign and a mutable sign and fulfill your role as the analyst, one who questions relationships with people, objects and ideas. Your quick yet changeable mind misses little; you find ways to examine as many sides of a situation as possible. If the scenario is too exhausting, you bail and recharge your batteries at a lively party. You share your ruling planet Mercury, with Virgo. This year the Sun enters your sign on May 20 at 10:59 PM EDT and leaves on June 21 at 6:51 AM EDT. Jupiter in Cancer is wrapping up a trip through your 2nd house of personal income, assets and resources; self-development and career expression; income sources, spending habits, budget, people connected with money management and financial industries. By July 16 Jupiter enters Leo where it remains until August 11, 2015 in your 3rd House of mental ingenuity, clever solutions, cousins, siblings, media interests, all forms of communication and transportation, local travel, community and your neighbors, educational pursuits and writing or transmission of messages. While in Cancer you have had time to evaluate job satisfaction and consider any moves to boost your work responsibilities and income level. If you haven't done so, now is the time to move ahead with any plans you have to change jobs, go back to school to improve promotion credentials and to fully express your expertise. If you are seeking loans for autos or home get competitive rates as soon as possible and postpone buying a new vehicle while Mercury is retrograde from June 7 to July 1. Saturn in Scorpio plays a leading role in your 6th House of :work, daily environment, set routines, health, pets, co-workers and business connections, nutrition, and levels of fitness. Geminis who are born June 10-21 have a strong Saturn connection all year and it highlights your work and health habits. Both your job and your health, and possibly your nerves get tested. You could have arguments or get very peeved with individuals who are not doing their job at work or at home; Saturn also helps you tweak your bad habits. Mars in Libra in your solar 5th House went direct on May 19 so you could resume a romance that was put on hold or give new juice to a project or a move that has stalled. You may experience job stress due to personnel changes, unusually high expectations, and a shift in responsibility or a heavy workload. Job hunters could receive a welcome offer; those searching for new work since last October receive the desired offer. Uranus in Aries most affects those of you born May 30-June 7 while it travels through your Solar 11th House all year. This favorable transit could mean the love bug comes to town and singles find true romance. For those already in a relationship a new dynamic takes shape and sometimes it can upset the equilibrium on more than one front. An engagement can be broken if a more suitable partner surfaces; those relationships on rocky ground get a close look when revelations lead to major changes in the relationship, in some cases to separation or divorce; friendships also undergo changes and many of you will welcome new associations and groups into your circle while others decide to accept an office or chairmanship in a favorite organization. Networking pays off and connections could be your ticket to new career opportunities. Early born Geminis (May 20-25) could get a raise before the end of summer from transiting Jupiter in Leo. Neptune in Pisces in your solar 10th House can lend confusion to career and family matters; someone you know could be in a fog or be sending you mixed signals. Do your best to stabilize these matters especially if your birthday falls May 24-29. You may find work and family solutions unfolding with a mystical touch. You could realize that the work you are doing or the career path is not the best choice for you; some will seek transfers within; others will leave organizations where conflicts in philosophy make you uncomfortable. The last thing you need to do is check out of reality and follow a quest that is not well-structured. This transit helps you go inside to look at how your actions affect your best interests and make needed adjustments. Address boredom so you don't harbor anger and anxiety. Make the choices that fit with the evaluation you began last year in these important realms. Pluto in Capricorn connects with Geminis born May 29-June 4 in your solar 8th House of finances, debt, estate matters, joint assets, winnings, wills, sex, regeneration, and psychological depth. You may be tested to make sure you meet your goals involving debt reduction, spending habits and investments. Pluto is at home in the 8th house, its natural habitat so the lessons are long and deep. Pluto is going to clash again in the coming year with transiting Uranus in Aries in your solar 11th House of goals and associates. You have your work cut out for you when Pluto calls attention to all of those topics you wish would not come up. Unplanned expenses, income adjustments, and financial belt-tightening could be part of the picture as could the truth about relationships, intimacy, insurance and your psyche. Others may want to latch on to your achievements and go for some of the glory; some contacts may want to hit you up for a loan or ask you to co-sign one; others want to involve you in an investment that needs close watching; even charitable contributions could go over the top or involve an inordinate amount of time you really can't spare. Consider new proposals after you have done your homework and engage in pleasurable group activity this year. Now is the time to reap those well-deserved rewards.

The first two eclipses that affect you in 2014 fall in April: the first one occurred in Libra on April 15, a compatible sign for you in your solar 5th house of vacation, love, romance, children, investment, creativity and speculation. What a nice vibe for a new love to enter your life if you are single or to strengthen an existing bond if you are not. This is a terrific time to bond with your children, people who enjoy the same type of creative/artistic interests as you; make plans for seeing shows, plays and musicals, or engage in sports in one way or another. This is a full moon eclipse and its influence lasts until October 8. On April 29 when the new moon eclipse in Taurus occurred in your 12th House of the unconscious, behind-the-scenes activity, privacy and secret matters, you could be involved in plans that are in the unsettled stage and need more fine-tuning. Those of you who are involved in secret relationships could find yourself planning private meetings, having a fling, or planning a break-up with a mate. If you are in an awkward relationship be careful because eclipses have a way of making waves if you have planets in the signs or under the influence of the eclipse energy. And for those of you with a wide path in a budding relationship this could be the time when it advances to the next cycle. Some reveal plans for the future such as moves, new careers, a coming baby or a cherished vacation. This eclipse influences your chart until October 23. Some Geminis may meet exciting new associates through work or professional organizations when the October 8 eclipse in Aries brightens your solar 11th House near transiting Uranus in Aries. Talk about sudden events and magnetic attraction. It can be a love interest or be someone involved in a cause that you hold dear. Aries is a passionate sign so it will reflect some of the energy you are experiencing that has carried over from the April 15 eclipse. Some of you could be asked to chair a committee, accept a leadership role, get involved in your homeowners' association or run a campaign; others may be given financial responsibilities affiliated with your work place. When the October 23rd partial solar eclipse in Scorpio lands in your solar 6th house of work, health, colleagues, fitness, nutrition and pets, conditions involving these topics fill up your air space. Conditions surrounding these themes play out through March 2015 and call attention to those 12th House matters discussed above suggesting that it is time to act on them and bring about the changes that bring your life into balance. For many of you April 2015 can be a turning point and you will be looking for changes that make a difference in your life and outlook. The spotlight focuses on a new path, freedom from drudgery; new people and contact; invitations; emerging missions and joining forces with kindred spirits. Embrace this cycle of eclipses to release new beginnings in the coming year.

Famous Geminis include: Miles Davis, John Wayne, Bob Hope, John F. Kennedy, Clint Eastwood, Colin Farrell, Marilyn Monroe, Angelina Jolie, Johnny Depp, Natalie Portman, Elizabeth Hurley, Courtney Cox, Ian McKellen, Paul McCartney, Kristen Alderson, Drew Carey, Bob Dillon, Paul McCartney, Anderson Cooper, Kristen Scott Thomas, Naomi Campbell, John C. Reilly, Stevie Nicks, Joseph Fiennes, Mike Myers, Kylie Minogue, Barbara and George H.W. Bush, Pam Grier, Wynonna Judd, Cornel West, Alanis Morissette, Morgan Freeman, Heidi Klum, Kenny G, Mark Wahlberg, Sandra Bernhard, Liam Neeson, Prince, Tom Jones, Joan Rivers, Kanye West, Michael J. Fox, Tim Allen, Boy George, Helen Hunt, Joyce Carol Oates, Yasmine Bleeth, Newt Gingrich, Venus Williams, Kathleen Turner, Paula Abdul, John Goodman, Bill Moyers, and Nicole Kidman.

May 20-JUNE 21 PLANET ACTIVITY

High Intensity turning point! The good news is that as of May 19 Mars in Libra went direct. Mars has been in Libra since October and turned retrograde on March 1. For most of May it has stationed at 9 degrees of the sign and will move forward and change degrees on June 1 following a normal course of action through the sign until July 27 when it moves to Scorpio. The house in your chart that has Libra on the cusp is an important one for you because activities, events, people and conditions affiliated with that house have been on hold or in the percolating stages for some time. Now you will see actions and decisions taking place and the movement you desire to further your goals and interests. If you have planets at 8-10 degrees of Cardinal signs Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn they are particularly affected; ditto your Moon, Ascendant and major house cusps. Mercury is finishing up a rapid trip through Gemini until May 28 and enters Cancer on the 29th; by June 7 it will be retrograde for three weeks in the sign Gemini moving rapidly before going direct on July 1 at 24 Gemini. You know what to expect when this planet goes retrograde: delays, communication mix-ups, equipment on the fritz, questionable contracts, half the story, late or canceled appointments, and reversals in decision-making. Just chill out, read, do your homework, catch up on a project, finish the article you are writing and research pending options to bide the time. Venus occupies Aries on a rapid run through the sign before moving to Taurus on May 29. If you are meeting new people now you could find a new love interest, a fondness for music and the arts, invitations to entertainment venues and creative cooking. Jupiter in Cancer starts out this cycle at 18 degrees of the sign most affecting Cardinal signs born from the 8th through 17th of their birth month. Jupiter brings pending deals to a conclusion, instigates action, travel, investment and family activities especially for those affected. Cancers benefit from the healing vibes and expansive properties of Jupiter. Saturn in Scorpio is retrograde throughout this cycle and revisits issues that are on the table for Scorpions born November 9-11 and Aquarians, Leos and Tauruses born around 17-19 degrees of their signs. Pisces and Cancers born March 7-10 and July 7-10 benefit from a well-deserved prosperity cycle. Uranus in Aries travels at 14-16 degrees in testy aspect to Pluto in Capricorn; those born under the signs Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn or with planets at the 14th through 16th degree could see important matters or life changes emerge in the next several weeks - the aspect plays out all year. Right now Uranus is one of the main triggers in the horrific flooding, deadly tornados, fires and emerging warfare that are wreaking havoc in the US and abroad.

An example of how these hard aspects to planets affect our country is playing out right now as the news breaks regarding the Chinese military's involvement in cyber-espionage against U.S. firms. Hacking, according to the Justice Department, was done for no other reason than to give China a competitive advantage over the U.S. via stealing trade secrets and sensitive business information and then undercutting prices charged in the market place. Diplomacy and creative or design work is best accomplished from now through June 11 until planetary energies become harsh. Look for another unstable current from June 12-19; Mars challenges Pluto on the 14th and triggers anger from the deepest places; watch the news and also your temper during this period. Avoid making agreements in the heat of angst that are likely to be broken. Neptune in Pisces goes retrograde on June 9 but manages to do so under circumstances that favor love and harmony with a positive vibe to Venus in Taurus. This planet conjoins the Suns of Pisces born February 25-27 inspiring imagination and giving you an opportunity to execute plans for the future and dreams that play out in 2014-15. With this planetary shift check the dosage level and compatibility of medications during this period especially if you notice reactions to new medications or treatment for allergies. Pluto in retrograde motion during this cycle moves slowly in Capricorn on the Sun of members born at the 13th and 12th degrees of the sign, approximately January 5-7 - the message during this period is to give some thought to possible new directions or living arrangements while living in the moment. The lull gives you time to fine tune pending matters even though you may feel restless and raring to get on with your life. Studying and researching information will help you achieve desired goals. Similar information applies to other members of cardinal signs, Aries, Cancer and Libra with planets at 13-12 degrees. From a global standpoint the cycle could remain volatile while we wait for disclosures of a political and financial nature. Chiron in Pisces turns stationary retrograde at 17 degrees on June 21 just as we enter the sign Cancer and brings up hurtful memories for Pisces born around the 8-9th of March. Go ahead and have a good cry if you feel the inner pain. It is better to release and let go so you can avoid allergic reactions that send you to the doctor for an unnecessary visit; seek wise counsel to sort things out.

PEOPLE, PLACES, EVENTS, AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

The Taurus newsletter covered information about the remaining 6 contestants on the American Idol show. The final round that begins tonight, May 20th has two finalists, Jena Irene, a Cancer whose highly activated and intense astrology chart I covered in that issue is competing with Caleb Johnson, a Taurus for the coveted American Idol award for 2014. Nothing like an abundance of key transits and eclipse activity moves a contestant into the limelight to give these talented contestants the opportunity to leave their mark on the music world for decades to come. The final round occurs on May 21st, too late to include in this issue. American Idol will return next season with a one-night only show on Fox. The current judges are expected to return next season. Dancing with the Stars completes this season's competition as this newsletter goes out with the winner scheduled for selection on May 20. At the top of the contenders' list we have the mesmerizing Capricorn duo of Meryl Davis and her Capricorn partner Maksim Chmerkovskiy; followed closely by brave-hearted Scorpio Amy Purdy with her opposite sign partner Derek Hough, a Taurus; and in a surprise upset over the dancing Cancer duo of James Maslow and Peta Murgatroyd, Aries Candace Cameron-Bure and her Gemini dance partner Mark Ballas round out the competition. Since I hope to have this issue of the newsletter in your hands at the start of the Gemini cycle at 10:59 PM this evening, I will not have the name of the winning team available. Who do you think deserves to win? I will post a shout out on Twitter tomorrow and show the outcome at www.astrologyondemand.com.

Donald Sterling: The 80-year-old Los Angeles Clippers owner has been banned for life from the NBA after his insensitive racial comments came to light via tape produced by his girlfriend/Associate V. Stiviano. He is a Taurus, born in Chicago, time unknown with a tight conjunction of Uranus, Mars and the Sun that received recent vibes from the April 29 Taurus/Scorpio axes of eclipses as well as the opposition of the April 15 Libra lunar eclipse. Last October Uranus (sudden revelations, the unexpected) received a direct hit from the full Moon eclipse in Aries, so the pot was stirring for several months before the revealing tape hit the airwaves. Using solar charts it appears that the shocking publicity shows just how rigid his outlook is on racism and changing social norms and it probably stems from his adherence to a generational mindset that doesn't waiver in ideology. Operating in his chart is a T-square involving Pluto, Mercury and Jupiter that can reveal shocking or skewed views on a variety of subjects and an obsessive desire for power and control of others, of their minds or of situations and life conditions involving an ego quest. I also note that Black Moon Lilith is conjoined to Pluto and I felt that connection describes his relationship with V. Stiviano. As of this writing I was unable to find her birth date - since 2002 she has used a total of 8 known aliases. The Pluto/Black Moon connection shows the desire to control someone, use or be used, do something for another with a personal benefit in mind; or misrepresent one's purpose or view. Adding to the complication is his repeated mention of Earvin "Magic" Johnson, a Leo born August 14 in Lansing, MI, who has strongly indicated that he is not part of Sterling's odd declarations and wants nothing to do with the situation that has evolved. Their harsh lunar connections do not augur friendship and Donald's Saturn is directly on Chiron in Magic's chart showing that he is "wounding" Magic with his judgmental statements and allegations about Magic's life and contributions to humanity. Both planets oppose Magic's Sun so he was hit out of the blue by the barrage of animosity. What will we learn over time? Stay tuned.

Other Requests for Information on News Making Celebrities: - One of the stars making the news is actor George Clooney. Readers want to know if he is serious about taking the plunge after announcing his engagement to Lebanese attorney Amal Alamuddin. Rumor has it that they are likely to marry on the anniversary of their first meeting which occurs in September of this year. Chart progressions and eclipse hits seem to be driving George's new position on marriage. The long-time bachelor who was married briefly in his 20's has consistently avoided the altar. If you see his chart you would never think so because he was born with a Moon-Saturn conjunction in Capricorn often a sign of stability in marriage or relationships. Yet the reality has been that since his divorce he has had relationships with women that seem to run their course in about two years. George is a Taurus with Pisces rising and planets around his ascendant that are receiving vibes from transiting Neptune in Taurus, a romantic tone if ever there was one. Venus is in Aries and now affected by transiting Uranus in Aries - sudden decisions, awakenings, movement; and the first eclipse of the year in Aries is going to fall right on that Venus, so this woman might be a keeper. Could children also be part of his long term plan? Let's watch and see as Mr. Clooney embraces a new cycle of love and bonding.

Hillary Clinton questions have come in - you know the main one - is she going to run for President? I have two natal charts for Hillary, one for an AM birth; the other for a PM birth which will make a big difference in the answer to that question. She has not yet said she would run, so I am going to wait a while before I really tear into her chart analysis. Regardless of which chart I look at her planets are receiving strong vibes from both eclipses and outer planet transits. You can believe her chart carries a powerful leadership blueprint yet that is not the only prerequisite for success in the oval office.

Solange Knowles, sister of Beyonce, had a little dustup recently in an elevator with her brother-in-law Jay Z Carter. Solange is a Cancer born June 24; Jay Z is a Sagittarius. The family insists in a public statement that they have moved beyond the elevator drama and have put aside any animosity. They have said that like most families, stuff happens and the argument was not intended for public display. It seems that someone working for the elevator company shared the video with the press. On the heels of the recent eclipse in Libra, the Moon's South Node in Solange's chart received the brunt of this eclipse in her solar 4th House of home and family. The conjunction represents unfinished business or old stuff/discussion that many have surfaced triggered by a sensitive incident which the family is not ready to discuss. Solange also has Pluto in early Scorpio that opposed the April 29 eclipse in Taurus in her 5th House of social affairs. Later this year, Solange will experience her Saturn return, so her chart has some hot spots and signs of growing pains as she advances to the chart progression that brings new responsibility and outlook on life to the forefront. Pluto transiting her solar 7th House of the public and partners shows the need for discretion - nothing that requires change gets past Pluto scrutiny.

READERS' CORNER

Thank you for the many questions and comments you sent during the past month. I am addressing two of them in this newsletter.

Q. I am a Gemini woman and will turn 34 in a few weeks. I am single and seem to attract men into my life who are either Pisces or Virgo. I always thought those signs were incompatible with Gemini and would like to know why this is happening. In my late 20's I was engaged to a Pisces and our engagement lasted 6 months; later I broke up with a Virgo after a 2-1/2 year relationship just as we began to talk about marriage. Now I have met another Virgo. Please shed light on my attractions. Am I selecting the wrong signs or am I on the right track after all?

A. Let's start with your last statement. No right or wrong signs deserve that label regardless of the general information that is out suggesting that you had better stay away from certain Sun signs. Your chart components drive the connections you have with another. If too many of those connections are difficult the relationship will have a limited shelf life. When all of the aspects are easy, even if compatible, you may get bored. A happy combination of aspects is the glue that keeps partners interested. A prominent highlight of your natal chart shows that you were born with the Moon in Pisces which is a natural attractant for the Pisces man since it creates a Sun/Moon conjunction often a sign of friendship. His Venus in Aquarius trines your Sun so you shared a fairly compatible relationship while it lasted even though you found out over time that you had less in common than you originally thought - I'll bet you found out while making those wedding plans in your engagement phase. Mars in your natal chart is in Virgo along with Jupiter and Saturn in that sign so you have some similar analytical qualities to the Virgo men, particularly the current one. With your mutual interests in health, fitness and nutrition you have had much to talk about with both Virgo men. Remember that Mars often represents the passionate attraction in our chart, the type of person who gives us that romantic vibe. For men Venus plays a leading role. With the current Virgo you have another compatible tie - his rising sign is Pisces and your Moon falls in his first house, often an indication that you are on his mind quite often. Transiting Neptune in Pisces has just crossed his Ascendant making it a romantic time for him if he chooses. I'm betting that he spends more time with you over the coming months and you will both be agreeable to forging a very solid romantic bond. In the meantime, enjoy the journey.

Q. I haven't seen this type of question in your column but hope you can shed light on the aggravating situation I experienced via chart analysis. A woman from my community and I took on the task of coordinating a bake sale to benefit the neighborhood swim team. Each of us was supposed to find 8 other persons to bake 2 different items for the sale and to make sure the categories of cakes, pies, cookies, coffeecake, muffins, brownies and bread or rolls had entries. We were also going to contribute 2 items apiece and cover publicity and outreach to draw enough interest to sell out during the 3-hour timeframe. We were also asked to find up to 4 volunteers to help us cover sales at the tables during the event. Since we had 5 weeks lead time, I started phoning neighbors and friends and had commitments to cover all the bases the first week out. Much to my horror I found out a few days before the sale that my partner had not contacted anyone until the weekend before our event and did not get full commitment until 2 days before our sale. On that day we set up the table space and I found that 5 of her helpers made muffins and the rest made cookies including her - she forgot to mention that we needed two different items from each participant and “forgot” that we were supposed to cover the diverse categories and find sales help. She said she was going to buy a couple of pies to give her group contributions more variety but did not remember by the time we gathered to display the goods. By the time the sale began I was fed up with the sorry excuses she gave me for why her team did not deliver. All I can give you is my bake sale partner’s date and year of birth but I don’t have the time and don’t know where she was born. Thank you for your insight.

A. Over the years I have found that when Mercury is in hard aspect with Mars erratic energy is usually present in a variety of expressions depending upon patterns that play out in the chart. Your cohort was born with Mercury conjunct the Sun in hard aspect to both Mars and Saturn which are in different signs. Mercury near the Sun represents mental ambition, intelligence, a chance to shine and sometimes taking on many tasks that may or may not have a successful outcome. In this case Mars is optimistic but the relationship to the Sun shows conflict, energy that wanes, lack of attention to details and/or possibly saying yes without considering the impact of existing commitments. In some scenarios the parties are not truthful about what they can do or what they have actually done. With Saturn in the mix, the desire to take on responsibility exists but the details get lost in the impulsive expression of Mars while the fiery planet fights with the organization Saturn wants. Do you think your cohort might be a bit forgetful? On the date the two of you agreed to take on the bake sale event, Mercury was going direct after a 3-week retrograde spell. The date alone tells me that your partner may not have taken in the details of either the written request or the gist of the oral message. Had you known this fact you might have followed up periodically to check on the status of the task. Even if you get a better organized partner for future events your take-away from this one is to build in some follow-up time. Thanks for sharing.

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about earlier newsletters. I appreciate your feedback on the Taurus issue and welcome your thoughts on this one.
