Venus, the Goddess of Love, rules the Taurus cycle. Now in full swing she brings your landscape to life creating a living showcase of beautiful, fragrant flowers and shrubs. Luscious plants in various stages of bloom flaunt their assets and the outdoor world sparkles. In most areas it is time to prep the soil for summer crops. Many a Taurus has a nurturing green thumb. Your sign appreciates all things beautiful, has an ear for music and an extensive interest in both personal and psychological self-development. Although not a fan of sudden change when you see the value for it you respond with spirit. Taurus loves to be appreciated -- why not host an elegant feast or spring for a concert, show or play to celebrate the birthday event?

ALERTS: Be aware of current scams that are making the rounds: some claim they are politicians or charities asking for donations via credit cards; you may be told you will be rewarded with a dinner, an invitation to a celebrity event or a picnic. Other scams involve tax returns - know that the IRS will never call you directly or ask you for your social security number. Numerous e-mail messages are flooding the Internet that say a "Fed-Ex or DHL package is ready for delivery" and could be asking for confirmation of your location; some ask for your credit card number. One of the most offensive is the one that says they have pictures of you and want you to open the e-mail. Send all of these to SPAM without opening. You know what to do to stay safe and secure and don't give the scammers any ammunition.

The winner of the $10 drawing for March is CB. April clients who schedule consultations of one hour or more are also eligible for this discount in the drawing scheduled for April 30. The May winner will receive a copy of the 2015 Moon Sign Book. Monthly drawings are normally scheduled for the last day of the month and winners

TAURUS and THE YEAR AHEAD

Happy Birthday, Taurus! Your Sun Sign resonates to resourcefulness and the income-oriented 2nd House of earning power, money you have at your disposal, how you want to spend your assets, what goods and services you treasure, personal development, material possessions and people who sell you related services including those in the banking industry. Your affiliation with money represents a part of your life that often attracts satisfying, lucrative work and makes a bold statement in your chart. Born under the sign of the Bull, you are both an earth sign and the first of four fixed signs. Born with a strong will you have the passion and determination to succeed. Some of the material in this section could apply to those with a Taurus Ascendant or a heavy concentration of Taurus planets. Consult your astrologer for full details. This year the Sun entered your sign on April 20 at 5:42 AM EDT and leaves on May 21 at 4:45 AM EDT. Jupiter in Leo is in your solar 4th House of home, family, base of operations, real estate and gardening, home renovations and people who live with you. During this time you have opportunities to put plans into action on the home front. These changes could involve major home projects or simply painting the back fence; a move, new landscaping plans, home renovations and movement of family members into or out of your home. Jupiter stays here until August 11 when it moves to Virgo and your solar 5th House of romance, children and their interests, entertainment, speculation, your social life, sports, recreation and risk taking. Virgo is a very compatible sign for you and in the 5th house could lead to expansion of your contacts, the size of your family, an increase in job benefits or highly active social life that includes romance, parties, vacations and sporting events. This connection happens every 12 years and could lead you to making several important decisions based on your chart aspects and planets connected to this house. Mars is in Taurus occupying your solar 1st House right now and can make you hyper vigilant, assertive, a bit restless and very goal-oriented through the 11th of May. Those of you with health issues may find solutions through new health care providers or by making a change in your routine. You will be safer if you take care when using sharp instruments or driving and take a breath when you get into heated discussions with others. Saturn in Sagittarius is retrograde in your solar 8th House highlighting your debt load, new loans or mortgages, joint income, escrow and estate matters as well as the intimate side of your life. Shared resources is one of the major themes playing out for most of this year and could lead to a solid merger of some sort, a commitment in the area of romance, a desire to merge finances or sort out emerging roles, engage in partnership ventures and deal with wills and estates. Saturn is retrograde in this sign now and will temporarily leave Sagittarius on June 14 when it returns to Scorpio and your solar 7th House of partners, loved ones, roommates, spouses, the public, medical and legal professionals, cooperators and advisors. If born from April 20-24 you will experience the effects of Saturn in challenging aspect to your Sun. The impact is especially strong through June 14 and returns in high focus after September 17. Those of you born the last few days of Taurus will experience the opposition to your Sun during the June 14-September 17 period. Pay close attention if you are dealing with matters connected with partners, housemates, professional partnerships, lovers, and those who influence your career. You probably already know the types of relationship issues that are pending and need work. At any rate the dynamics are so taxing you will be ready to throw in the towel, so address problems as they come up. Others enter into new and rather serious relationships and learn much about commitment and staying power. You survived the Saturn test that began in 2013 and should be on your way to enjoying a new life. Get a physical exam if you feel low on energy and seek new medical experts to tweak treatment types. Networking yields promising new connections. Saturn in the 7th House can be very karmic while it transits. Uranus in Aries maintains its vigilance of your Solar 12th House all year. Those of you born May 3-13 feel the greatest impact because you are making plans behind the scenes and keeping secrets - your own and others. In some cases you upset connections who are trying to figure out what is up with you. Make time to process what is keeping you up at night through meditation, self-help psychology or the assistance of experts in the consulting or therapeutic fields. By all means make plans to advance goals, travel, let go of anger and heal old wounds. Certain Taurus members could use a complete health checkup or a second opinion on a treatment that does not seem to be working. Those quiet Taureans need to talk it out if feeling bottled up and ready to burst - this is not the year to be patient and hope it all goes away. Be discrete on the job especially if someone shares a high level secret and don't get involved in petty disputes. Identify trusted advisors and seek guidance. Neptune in Pisces is beautifully compatible with your sign, Taurus, and especially for those born April 25-30 in your solar 11th House of goals, wishes, friendships, political connections, professional affiliates, and organizations. You will be looking for kindred spirits among your groups and friendships. Yes, this is a year to join groups and find a mate - how about Hello Cupid or Match.com? Many of you could gain incredible popularity with peers, colleagues, and friends and are likely to meet a number of new contacts via networking. Friends pop in and out of your life for reasons of their own. Invest in the tried and true and bond again - you will be glad to reconnect with friends. Enjoy activities revolving around yoga, meditation, spiritual studies, metaphysical classes, volunteer work and hobbies. Be sure to share expenses if you carpool, vacation with others or take advantage of group deals. Say no if you are asked to carry a burden not your own. Ask questions and dig into motives if exchanges leave you puzzled. Why not mentor someone who needs help focusing on goals - career or personal. Pluto in Capricorn affects you in a positive and perhaps intense way if born May 2-7 in the solar 9th House of long-distance travel, publishing and journalism, foreigners, in-laws, higher education, languages, spirituality, legal matters, professional opinions and culture. If you are involved in any of these themes you will need patience to endure facets of the changes that are moving into your life. If travel has stepped up you may feel like you are reeling from adaptation to time zones and cultural differences. Those who return to school or have visitors in your home from faraway places, particularly go through an adjustment cycle. Some of you may have children returning to your home after they have long been on their own. Your interest in politics could peak during this cycle and become stronger in 2016 as we approach a presidential election. Others will notice your intensity or change of focus so be sure to plan for a balanced life - something Pluto influences: good eating habits, rest, recreation and fitness goals come to mind - and help you remove blocks.

The 2015 boost of plutonian energy works in your favor and makes you a strong candidate for positive change and future successful projects.

Taurus, this year is the first in a while that did not feature eclipses in your sign. If you had planets at eclipse degrees over the past 2+ years, you are probably relieved that the high drama and level of change are in the past. Now the eclipse intensity depends on other facets of your natal and progressed charts. Your birthday cycle embraces all 4 of the eclipses prominent during 2015; two of which are in signs that are compatible to yours. First up is the total solar eclipse of March 20 in Pisces which occurred in your solar 11th House of humanitarian interests, friends, groups, goals and wishes. There is nothing like a powerful eclipse to clean out the debris in relationships, help you see where you might tweak your goals or point you toward a more lucrative or satisfying career. For some of you that means dropping old friendships as you make new ones; it could mean you retire and just don't see old contacts with frequency again; or you take up brand new interests and let those things that are boring you fall by the wayside. Remember that Neptune is also in this house so your goals could be more metaphysical or idealistic than usual. Have fun meeting new people. The second eclipse of 2015 was lunar and fell in Libra in your solar 6th House of health, work, colleagues, the daily environment, nutrition and pets as well as fitness routines. Here you may experience more than the usual interaction with colleagues and collaborators at your work place, those with whom you share personal space or with individuals in a healing environment. Eclipses in the 6th House often call attention to health matters that could include surgery or dental work, tests and exercise modifications. Other dynamics that evolve are: a workplace romance, an emphasis on teamwork, the arrival of new, streamlined equipment, the purchase of cookware or diverse vitamins and other supplements new to your world. To maintain balance speak up when you feel unnecessary. For those of you who do not speak up until crisis hits, it is time to say no to what creates unnecessary burdens. On September 13 the third eclipse of 2015 in Virgo, is a new moon eclipse that occupies your solar 5th House of seclusion and planning behind the scenes. You may be the recipient of so many social invitations that you may not be able to keep up with them or the expenses connected with them. For some Tauruses the social scene is romance-driven; for others it has to do with the work scene ranging from hiring new employees to putting teams together or planning new space. The pace may also pick up in regard to children - sports, school activities, recreation or vacations. Some of you will need some R&R to chill after a particularly hectic schedule that involves problem solving. If other aspects are present you could start and end a new relationship between now and next March. The last eclipse of the year ends with a full moon lunar eclipse in the sign of Aries on September 27 in your solar 12th House of reflection, confidential matters, behind-the-scenes activity, long range planning, charitable work, and visits to the sick, recovery after surgery and psychic phenomena. This one occurs at 4+ degrees. Eclipses that fall in Aries are not very patient and seldom hold on to secrets for very long, so if you are hiding any they could surface - be prepared - or circumstances force your hand. Remember that Uranus is in this house and adds a jolt of sudden reality to your plans. And Pluto in Capricorn is in harsh aspect to the transiting Uranus in this house so if you are having an affair or planning to leave your partner, the cat may be out of the bag soon. The energy is not all heavy duty though and you can add some unexpected ventures and entertainment escapes to your life to stimulate your psyche and bring more joy your way. The year ahead offers a smorgasbord of options to help you make the best moves and grow. Celebrate and have fun!

PLANETS' ACTIVITY APRIL 20-MAY 21

April starts off with some intensity in the aftermath of the lunar eclipse on April 4. While no eclipses occur during the Taurus cycle, we are still feeling the effects of the total solar eclipse on March 20. The economy of Greece has loomed largely in the news and many nations have shown concern for the country's financial stability. Pluto in Greece's chart was exactly conjunct the March 20 eclipse, a very powerful one whose impact may last up to a year. Pluto in Capricorn turned retrograde on April 16 and travels in harsh aspect to transiting Uranus in Aries. Those of you born around the 15th-16th degree of cardinal signs Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn are likely to feel the most energy from these planetary travelers. Saturn in Sagittarius remains retrograde until August 2 and most affects early born Sagittarians, Geminis, Pisces and Virgos born from 2-4 degrees of the sign. In the early summer Saturn will briefly return to Scorpio and will affect those of you born in the late degrees of fixed signs through September 17. On a good note many of you waiting for a tax refund should see it during the last week of April. Jupiter went direct in Leo early in the month giving the high sign to resume investment and purchase plans. Mars travels at a rapid pace through Taurus and enters Gemini just a few days before the Sun moves into Gemini early on May 21. The big news is that Mercury is going retrograde for three weeks in Gemini starting late in the evening of May 18, the same day we experience an early morning New Moon in Taurus. You could experience flip-flopping in decision-making, travel, and in completing projects. Just plan on reviewing documents, doing your homework before signing documents or starting a new project, make calls to friends you have forgotten to contact, clean out closets or work on your resume or retirement plans. Just don't execute goals, buy the house or change jobs until the all-clear signal appears -- Mercury stays retrograde until the evening of June 11. What does it mean to get "back to normal?" You won't see it happen often during this period and some people feel the shift a few weeks before the retrograde begins. Our planet is in the throes of adjusting to major shifts due to the presence of the slower moving outer planets Uranus, Neptune and Pluto. Chiron, the Wounded Healer is direct in Pisces most affecting those born March 10-12. If you have decided it is time to clean up the debris from the past that occurred throughout your life, take inventory of circumstances and go for it. Neptune in Pisces affects individuals born February 25-28 during this time and could bring passion to your love life, romance to the workplace or clear vision for your future that you had not previously considered. Just don't sleep or daydream too much while the good vibes linger and invigorate career and personal relationships. Although there are dates to take precautions, you will need to contact your astrologer to define them because every chart is unique and deserves personal interpretation. Themes in the news lean toward egos that get in the way of diplomacy, shaky grounds for lending money, lack of compassion for the underdog and criticism rather than understanding of diverse viewpoints or paths in life, especially starting the end of this week and extending well into mid-May. Find your harmonious spirit and use your expansive outlook to cultivate social, business, or romantic relationships as you embrace the solidarity of Taurus energy. Take time to enjoy beauty, self-development and entertainment during this cycle.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

Here are the short takes on people and topics currently in the news. You have expressed an interest in several; here is what I included this time around.

DANCING WITH THE STARS: As I write this section eight contestants are still in the race. Contenders include Leo Rumer Willis with her Aries partner Val Chmerkovskiy; Scorpio Riker Lynch with his Aquarius partner Allison Holker; Scorpio Nastia Liukin with her opposite sign partner Derek Hough, a Taurus; Virgo Robert Herjavec and his Leo partner Kym Johnson; Gemini Willow Shields and her Gemini dance partner Mark Ballas; Scorpio Noah Galloway and his Gemini (she could be an early Cancer as no birth time is available) partner Sharna Burgess; Gemini Patti LaBelle paired with Gemini Artem Chigvintsev and Scorpio Chris Soules and his Libra partner Witney Carson. Note the sign composition and other astrological facts: 2 Gemini; 1 Leo, 1 Virgo, 4 Scorpios; Cardinal Signs: 0; Fixed Signs: 5; Mutable Signs: 3. Planets affecting these dancers: Jupiter for the Gemini and Leo; Eclipses for Virgo and Scorpio; Uranus for Leo and Scorpio; Neptune for Gemini and Virgo contestants and Pluto for Virgo and Scorpio. Who is your favorite? Stay tuned.

Presidential Candidates: Rand Paul: This Capricorn ophthalmologist, politician and senator representing Kentucky has thrown his hat into the ring as a Republican contender for the 2016 presidential campaign. While no natal planets connect strongly with the U.S. chart in the Senator's chart, he does have progressed Venus and the Moon's South Node hitting the U. S. Pluto and the temporary vibe of his Solar Return Mars in aspect to the U. S. Moon. These configurations show he wants to make strong reform of the status quo a priority in his campaign which seems to be puzzling his support base because they do not know why he is shifting positions on key issues, especially his more Libertarian leanings. Hillary Clinton: Yes, this Scorpio candidate still has a very strong chart with tight connections to that of the U.S., even if the early days of her campaign are peppered with challenges. She has her husband, a Leo, in her corner with many favorable aspects at this time and her Pisces daughter Chelsea with her Sun trine her Mom's Sun ready to hit the campaign trail and tout her mother's strong points. Marco Rubio, a Gemini, also declared his candidacy last week and seems to be raising significant campaign funds. Approximately 19 Republicans are in the running and more are expected to enter; former Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley is about to join Hillary in the Democrats' race to the White House and at least three other names are cropping up as challengers.

EMPIRE: Two of the main stars of this season's Fox mega hit are born on Master number 11 days. They are Taraji P. Henson a Virgo born September 11 and Terrence Howard a Pisces born March 11. Both are staying busy while Empire is on Hiatus; Taraji returned to Person of Interest this week and Terrence debuts as Sheriff Pope in Wayward Pines starting in May. These two powerhouses with Sun opposite Sun aspects have the creativity and passion to master any role.

Andreas Lubitz was the co-pilot who sent the Germanwings Flight 9525 to its tragic crash ending on March 24 killing all 150 passengers and crew on board. This personality-challenged Sagittarius was born December 19 with his Sun sandwiched between Saturn (also conjunct Mercury, the planet that rules the mind) and Uranus in that sign with harsh aspects to his Moon's North Node in Pisces, and opposite Chiron in Gemini (deeply wounded psyche). He also had a Pluto/Mars conjunction in Scorpio in hard aspect to the configuration of treachery, and Black Moon Lilith in Leo all of which added a violent streak to his psychological makeup. His difficult planetary lineup is similar to those found in the charts of extremists, terrorists and emotionally disturbed individuals who may be able to keep up pretenses with outward calm yet beneath the surface the battleground is taking shape and often comes to a violent end. Transits of planets activate these aspects. When the truth comes out those who know the perpetrators are left wondering if there is anything that could have been done to stop the unthinkable.

American Idol: As I write this section the contenders for the Idols honor are down to 6 finalists, 2 women and 4 men ranging in age from 17 to 29. This year many of the contenders play musical instruments (some play multiple instruments) and have been encouraged to use the instrument in their vocal performances. You can be sure that several of these contestants will go on to professional careers no matter where they finish in the competition. The composition of signs at this stage is: Cardinal signs 1; Fixed: 3; Mutable: 2; Elements represented: 1 fire; 3 water; 2 earth; and 0 Air. I have no birth times for any of the contestants but do have their cities of birth and am using solar charts for the interpretation. In no particular order they are: Jackie "Jax" Cole, a Taurus born May 5; Nick Fradiani, a Scorpio born November 15; Tyanna Jones a Pisces born February 24; Rayvon Owen, a Cancer born June 27; Quentin Alexander, a Sagittarius born December 11; and Clark Beckham, another Taurus born May 15. Intense planetary activity present in their charts creates the drive and positive stress to boost the chart power and help the contender win the prize. Judges seem intent on offering support and constructive criticism to help the contestants improve performances. New voting practices have been implemented as well. Idol Judges are Leo Jennifer Lopez, Virgo Harry Connick, Jr., and Scorpio Keith Urban; Host Ryan Seacrest, a Capricorn and Mentor Scott Borchetta, a Cancer.

READERS CORNER:

I received significant mail from readers who enjoyed the questions in this section last month. Several mentioned the woman who could not make up her mind about attending an out-of-town wedding and commented that the man who asked her was lucky to be rid of her when she asked for compensation over a dress purchase. Around holiday time I often receive questions revolving around dinner or party invitations as you will see in the first question below. Readers interested in relocating were very interested in Part 2 of relocation astrology; and I also received mail from Taurus readers wanting to know more about soul mate connections and their ruler, Venus. Let me know what you think.

Q. I am wondering if you see anything in my chart that explains why I get tongue-tied and can't think of an answer when someone puts me on the spot. It happened again on Easter Sunday when my husband's cousin called in the morning to find out what time we were having dinner because he and his wife and son were joining us for dinner. They were not invited to the meal. I was expecting 8 guests and had to set up another table and prepare extra food to accommodate them. This cousin has a habit of waiting until the last minute and crashing meals we host for special occasions. I am usually the person he calls and announces his intention of visiting - he never asks to speak to my husband. They do not invite us for meals and we have been to their home only once in 9 years. I have been told that a few days before a holiday he calls relatives to find out if any relatives are hosting a meal. Based on what you find, how can I handle this intrusion in the future?

A. You were born with Mercury, Neptune and the Sun conjunct in the 3rd House of communication in your chart; the first two planets are in an exact conjunction. Mercury on Neptune has many positive meanings such as creativity, appreciation for the arts, poetry, drama and metaphysical pursuits as well as memory for dreams and ideas that take root in daydreaming. This configuration can sometimes make you lose focus or "fog out" when you are blindsided by unexpected announcements or new situations. To others you may appear confused yet your strong Sun position on the end of this conjunction allows you to get the picture after the fact. You have probably planned what you will do "the next time" this moocher calls only to forget your strategy by the time the event occurs. The cousin's behavior is rude and you have tolerated it far too long. Have you ever just thought about saying, "I'm sorry we will be unable to accommodate you at this meal" or "I'm surprised that you are calling; we did not extend an invitation to you?" Rather than repeat this scenario again I suggest that your husband take a proactive approach by phoning his cousin to request that he stop calling you and inviting his family to your holiday dinners. Tell the cousin that in the event that you are extending an invite he will be notified well in advance of the date that you are inviting his family; otherwise, there is no invitation to attend.

Q. I am a Taurus with Taurus rising. Some years ago I attended one of your Soul Mate workshops at the Festival of Lights in Maryland. In November I met a prospective partner and would like information clarifying details about soul mate types. I am trying to figure out what this person might mean. After I do I will work with you to schedule a chart comparison consultation. Thanks for your help.

A. With your Taurus placements and after a couple of years of eclipse hits, your auric field is calling attention to your desire to bond with another.

Soul Mates -- Partners Across Time

Soul Mates are spiritual partners whose love is tied to a universal love. We can understand a soul mate relationship to be the highest potential of an intimate loving relationship. Such a relationship is only possible to the extent the lovers are expressing their highest potential as individuals. A Soul Mate relationship is the manifestation of your innermost dream of intimate love and harmonious union with another. In the depths of your consciousness, you and your soul mate have already joined forces. You are most likely meeting on the causal plain if this is an incarnation where you will be together in body and spirit. Even if your primary Soul Mate is not on the planet, this individual serves as a guide in your life, so you are never alone.

The major purpose of the Twin Flames is to help each other ascend whether or not both parties are in body in any given lifetime. God does not look at Soul Mates as separate entities.

Soul Mates

Assume that there are different types of Soul Mates.

- ◆ Secondary Soul Mates: Represent individuals who may be either the opposite sex or of the same sex. These individuals may be part of our soul cluster, or group of individuals who come from the same soul or monad and whose experiences intermingle in various lifetimes. We often marry or pair with secondary soul mates and they make very suitable partners when aspects are right; they may be souls with whom we have karma to complete. Sometimes they are blood relatives, friends, or spiritual teachers, or combinations of these descriptions.
- ◆ Twin Flames, also known as Twin Souls or Primary Soul Mates: Your spiritual and often physical partner who knows the very essence of your soul because when you first incarnated on the earth plane, you came from the same atom and are able to recognize one another, on some level, across time. Twin Flames do make karma with each other in various embodiments and that karma has to be balanced when we find each other again. (Sometimes the biggest “fighter couples” on the planet are Twin Flames in search of balance.) You will need to be in search of spirit as the end result.

Age Differences

Sometimes Soul Mates, particularly Primary Soul Mates, have a significant age difference. The age difference may affect their love relationship in a given lifetime meaning that they may not marry or pair as lovers. Here are some of the reasons Soul Mates may not embody in the primary Soul Mate role:

- ◆ One partner has chosen other issues to work on in this particular incarnation.
- ◆ One partner has not finished necessary karma with others before reuniting with the twin flame, which may be significantly more advanced.
- ◆ The parent, child, friend, or relative relationship is chosen to help one of the twin flames progress spiritually.
- ◆ The Twin Flame may be on the planet but may be either significantly older or younger and circumstances prohibit a marriage.
- ◆ The Twin Flame may be the soul's teacher in this lifetime. The purpose of the meeting in that lifetime may be to bring accelerated spiritual learning to the partner who may have strayed for several lifetimes or who chose what the teacher has to offer.

When Soul Mates Connect in Love Relationships:

- ◆ In some cases, the Twin Flame marries the teacher who may not stay on the planet for a very long time. This condition is called the Guru-Chela relationship. (Jesus and Mary Magdalene)
- ◆ A marriage may take place despite age differences yet partners have a limited number of years together on the planet.
- ◆ Twin Flames detour with other relationships but find each other.
- ◆ Astrological indicators are strong that Twin Souls will connect.
- ◆ Sometimes considerable tension exists, but they ARE Soul Mates.
- ◆ In some cases, the Soul Mates seem like clones, each finishing the other's sentences or knowing without words what is going on.
- ◆ Roles and spiritual growth are clarified; strong spiritual linkages.
- ◆ You feel like you are going to the moon on all levels.
- ◆ If one party is functioning as an awakened soul and the other as a sleeping personality, a common meeting point between them exists only through the soul-infused entity. The greater can contain the lesser, but the lesser cannot contain the greater. (Quarts vs. pints)
- ◆ They may marry but the marriage does not last and isn't meant to.

Q. Everything went south with my boss when I made the mistake of canvassing the office staff for donations to benefit a military organization. I stopped by the desk of a colleague and he glared at me when I asked if he wanted to contribute. He asked me coldly if I thought it appropriate to do this on company time. I was stunned but apologized for bothering him and moved on. The next day my boss called me into his office and read me the riot act advising me that I had to stop and that unauthorized solicitation of employees for donations was against company policy. Obviously the colleague must have reported me. Since that time my boss has been on my case constantly as though I don't have enough to do (not true) and seems to be checking up on me. I am feeling miserable and don't look forward to coming to work. He is loading me with work as though he wants me to cave in and not get it done. What aspects are playing out in my chart? How can I fix this or should I be looking for another job?

A. The aspects that are playing out in your chart right now involve Uranus and eclipses that have been hitting your 6th house of daily activity, work environments, colleagues and organization. Eclipses in the opposite house, the 12th contribute to the down feeling you have that things are never going to be right again since the last hit on April 4 was in harsh aspect to the cusp of your 10th House. Aspects play out in your 10th House of career where Pluto opposes your Midheaven (door of the 10th house of career, authority figures through the end of this year and the aspect started late last year). Pluto is slow but insidious so you will have time to either solve the problem or move on. You would probably benefit from a one-on-one talk with your boss to admit that you were wrong and letting him know that you miss the old rapport you had and want to know what can be done to start over and reclaim his respect. You will know by his answer what you have to do. I wish you much success.

FACTORS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE WHEN CONSIDERING RELOCATION TO ANOTHER AREA:

Review Part One in last month's newsletter. A lot depends on where you are in your life cycle and what goals you have related to relocating. If career is important to you then you want a location that boosts your chances for success on the job. Find cities where your Sun, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn lines are strong. If you crave peace and quiet, spiritual contemplation, artistic expression, and social relationships then strong Venus and Neptune lines work best. Mars is helpful if you are seeking adventure, high action, stimulating discussion, challenge, passion and a hectic vibe. I have worked with clients who did well with Mars on the Ascendant and others who found it (along with other conflicting planets) to be too harsh - one man found he was in frequent conflict with others; another was accident-prone, others fell in and out of love; some attracted vehicle problems; one noted astrologer had theft incidents or violence directed at him in certain cities.

Don't relocate to a Mars line if you want to retire or have peace and quiet. Pallas lines give you a change of pace and a chance to create a beautiful home and make you an excellent problem solver because the Goddess of truth is very mental here. The Moon rising gives you a chance at happiness because you are more caring, loving and often intuitive; you will want to enjoy the amenities the chosen city has to offer. Jupiter benefits relationships, your health, strengthens your goals and attracts you to compatible networks. The Sun brings new relationships often leading to a long-term partnership or strengthens current ones. Pluto is resourceful and gives you inner strength and tremendous energy; perfect if you are involved in competitive sports, highly demanding physical work, the military or demanding business cycles. Your life and outlook undergo transformation here. Saturn is all about commitment whether personal or business and is often a good line for long-term employment or marriage partnerships. If you want to take things lightly, this is not the right location for you. Venus loves to party and create advantageous relationships; if you love recreation and culture, this is a good place to be.

Mercury brings out the writer, negotiator or communicator in you and may benefit your relationships with teaching, children and education. Uranus brings excitement and the unexpected to your door; it may be hard to settle down or you have employment that takes you away from home frequently; it is also conducive to humanitarian goals. Ceres lines are perfect if you work with children, want to have children or play a nurturing role with others via home care or profession; green thumb is an added bonus. Vesta rising brings favorable conditions for focus on goals and better concentration. Chiron rising may put you in touch with long-stifled feelings that are bound to surface and lead you to tools for letting go. It is always nice to have the Part of Fortune in a prominent place when you relocate. If the city you choose has its Part of fortune in one of your angular houses (First, Fourth, Seventh and Tenth), it often results in your dreams coming true whether it is with perfect employment, a better feeling about you, meeting the ideal partner which may lead to a compatible marriage; and excellent relationships with members of your family, a beautiful home or many visitors to your home or a stepped up interest in entertaining in the home.
