Fraud alerts of note include contest scams and attempts to get information from you regarding your recently upgraded credit card accounts - the ones that now have the security chips. Do not respond to any phone calls asking for information from you regarding this change. Instead contact your credit card provider and let them know what has happened. If the request comes via e-mail your card company will probably ask you to forward the message to a secure e-mail address that tracks fraudulent contact information. BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR SAGITTARIUS

Happy Birthday, Sagittarius! Your symbol is the Centaur known as the sign of the Archer, a fire, mutable member of the Zodiac and natural ruler of the 9th House of the higher mind, religion, spirituality, the clergy, advanced education, law, publishing, in-laws, foreigners, religion, and travel to distant places. Jupiter rules your sign and leads the way in attracting you to a variety of adventures at home and in distant locales. You choose rich, deep colors like dark blues, browns, purple and dark green shades and prefer stately trees such as birch and oak that resonate with your sign. You seek the truth in whatever interests you and are the one who asks those probing questions when you hear new facts wanting to expand your consciousness and passion for life. You are known for being very straightforward and freely express your opinion often; critics will say you burned them with your bluntness by your candid remarks. This year the Sun enters your sign on November 22 at 10:25 AM EST and leaves on December 21 at 11:48 PM EST a date which also coincides with the beginning of the winter solstice. Most of the material in the following section also refers to individuals with Sagittarius on the Ascendant.

Sagittarius, your birthday year plays host to your signature planet, Jupiter in two different signs during 2015-16. It starts out with Jupiter in Virgo through September 8 which activates your solar 10th House of career, authority figures, parents, especially your father, life status, ambition, leadership and long-term plans. You will meet with many facts and figures during this cycle and will surely become more organized in major areas of your life, particularly on the career and lifestyle fronts. Some of you may be promoted or start a new job where you are the boss or have more responsibility and paperwork; others move or retire or make investments for the future. If you could meet that special person, you may get engaged, and marry in this fast-moving cycle. On September 9 Jupiter begins a year-long stay in Libra in your 11th House of associations, groups, friends, organizations, work place resources, offices or appointments you hold or are asked to head up; goals, cherished dreams and creative forces; humanitarian endeavors. As long as you play it cool and watch expenditures this can be a very rewarding and lucrative cycle; popularity soars; you could join groups related to your personal interests. While in Libra, a very compatible sign to your Sagittarius sun you may find a love interest or grow closer to new or existing friends. With Saturn in Sagittarius playing a leading role in your solar 1st House for the next two years, you will have a very personal encounter with the planet of responsibility and restriction. Saturn's place in your 1st House will remind you of duties that wait for your attention and any stressful areas that could use a solution. Stay healthy so you can deal with organization, your appearance, outlook, and any problems that creep up. Spend time taking inventory of areas where you feel stuck; think about changing the arrangement of furniture or rooms, redecorate to create invigorating space; clear away clutter in multiple departments of life, and get free of burdens you have been ignoring in the last few years. From your birthday cycle through next December Saturn most affects those of you born from November 28-December 9. During part of your cycle Saturn will be retrograde from March 25 through August 13. Uranus in Aries visits your 5th House of vacations, romance, dating, recreation, sports, children, risk taking, speculation, and entertainment. Uranus contacts your Sun through the end of 2016 if born from December 6-18. You may be thinking that Uranus in a fire sign is compatible to your fire Sun sign and it is yet its presence in your solar 5th house is sure to shake up the status quo in some manner. Why? Well, Uranus brings to light any areas where you are in a rut. Let's say you are in a stagnant relationship - leave it to Uranus to make life downright uncomfortable if you don't do something about it - a sudden jolt like a breakup; an investment that proves to be a money loss or vacation plans that go astray. No matter what happens you will soon see the light that the unexpected change made a positive difference in your life. On the other hand those of you with children may see them shine and bring honors to school or sports events; you could develop stronger bonds through understanding or you could start coaching a sport or teaching a class that fulfills your creative vision. With your quick mind be sure to write down those blazing ideas that pop into your head so you can capitalize on their insight. Neptune in Pisces is in contact with your Sun if born November 27-December 5 while it moves through your solar 4th House of base of operations, your home and hearth, parents, family and foundation for the remainder of 2015 and through the end of 2016. This planet encourages you to slow down the pace enough to add spiritual energy to your auric field and find ways to stay calm so you can internalize helpful insight about yourself and your family. If you are finding it hard to concentrate, perhaps you should check out your home base to make sure there are no toxic substances present and no strained relationships disrupting your peace of mind. Watch for leaks and plumbing issues - you know how it is during the holidays when visitors use the equipment. If you are feeling confused about relationships - one-on-one or groups, give yourself some space to decide the next steps. You may consider walking away from situations that are not meeting your needs. With Neptune in strong aspect to your Sun you may feel light-headed or ungrounded. Have a checkup to make sure there are no health issues and seek advice if the relationship matters are getting the best of you. Then put on your biggest smile and enjoy the holiday preparations. You are a terrific partygoer. Pluto in Capricorn moves forward in your solar 2nd House of income, resources, values, assets, self-development, and how you want to earn your living; it now affects those of you born December 6-8 through the rest of 2015 and most of 2016. Pluto crawls advancing only 3 degrees a year given its 6-month retrograde pattern. If it is in aspect to your Sun take a good look at financial options and money solutions. Be much less of a gambler or free spender this year and more of a saver as you look at the goals you want to implement. The cold hard truth is right in front of you and anything you had to change last year with resource allocation is going to succeed in late 2016-17. Just be patient, something that does not come easily to you. If you can find one area where you spend money impulsively and refrain from indulging, your nest egg will thank you for your resilience. Pluto is in an ongoing push-pull scenario with transiting Uranus in your 5th House so you will be more objective in bestowing funds on children, lovers, travelers, speculators, and investors. Those of you with a physical move in your future will spend time getting estimates and finalizing plans. If considering a new mortgage do not take on debt by making a new vehicle purchase. The Uranus influence may shake up the world for single Sagittarians or bring to light new information about your children, teammates or people you date. Enjoy leisure time and use it to recharge batteries.

The start of your 2015 birthday cycle begins with the September 13 solar eclipse in Virgo that occurred in your solar 10th House of career, motivation, ambition and status in life; it remains prominent until March 8, 2016 - and beyond for many of you. The focus is on how well you honor work commitments and take the lead when life demands it. The presence of this eclipse, especially if planets are involved puts pressure on your performance, problem solving skills, and how well you value your place in the organization that employs you. If you are looking to jump start a new career or find a new position or retire, your time occurs between now and early 2017. Even if you dislike it intensely you will have an abundance of paperwork to sort through related to you or other family members - get it on your calendar and watch the piles go down. The final lunar eclipse of 2015 fell on September 27 in Aries, the sign on your solar 5th House and will deeply affect your ongoing affairs with new enterprise, risk-taking, children, romance, dating, social invitations, recreation, drama and entertainment, and sports. Your natal chart drives this activity that could possibly involve getting engaged, meeting a new partner, spending more time with children, accepting invitations, coaching sports, acting, dance or scouts, teaching and taking advantage of down time via vacation. With jumpy Uranus going through this house simultaneously life will be anything but placid. Check your calendar daily and follow up on calls. With a balanced understanding of life you are able to handle any new challenges that come your way. In 2016 you experience four eclipses; the first solar eclipse occurs on March 8th in Pisces in your solar 4th House of home, foundation, parents, decorating, plant life, remodeling and everyday living. Your home base could be shaken up with new routines and the presence of very sensitive individuals who seem quite needy and could take up far too much of your time. Home can also be a place where you seek a respite from the chaos out in the world. Do that deep breathing, take those walks and hop on the treadmill to relieve stress and clear your head for some objective problem-solving. The first lunar eclipse of 2016 occurs in Libra on March 23 in your solar 11th House of hopes, wishes, dreams, associations, groups, friendships, public offices and humanitarian endeavors. It also relates to the solvency of your employer's finances. This cycle is a mixed bag; if you are in a rut you are ready to let go and look at greener pastures for new groups, friends and organizations. If the previous eclipses have brought to light edginess in relationship dynamics, then you could be the one to offer solutions for working things out. A holding pattern will not work - you are offered an opportunity to clear the air, end the impasse and move on to greater awareness. The last solar eclipse of the year falls in Virgo on September 1 in your solar 10th house of career, people in authority, personal ambition, goals of the organization and the status quo of your life and that of your family. This eclipse continues many of the themes of the September 13, 2015 eclipse that challenges you to make a new life for yourself and carry out a fresh set of goals that put life into your spirit and psyche. All you desire has been set in motion waiting for you to add your special touch and believe in the magic. Many of you will be taking classes, earning new credentials or getting used to new responsibilities whether you are actively engaged in the work force or embracing retirement. A number of Sagittarians may go in an entirely new direction that adds passion to the meaning of life. Grab the brass ring when opportunity knocks. The final eclipse of 2016 falls on September 16 in Pisces, a lunar eclipse that activates the seesaw that is giving you choices between what is in the career sector and what transpires at home base. It will seem like everyone wants a piece of you as they compete for your time and energy. You are a strong one, Sagittarius and you can balance it all and make it look easy. All you have to do is say "no" to major conflicts of dates and time and remember what you did last March when the first Pisces eclipse occurred in this cycle. You felt cramped and stifled and ready to run for the hills yet you persisted in getting all the facts you could to make sense out of priorities. Now you have a chance to do it with even greater commitment and “know how.” Address any whiners you encounter and paint the picture of reality that gives them comfort in knowing that you are on the ball and handling matters as they come up. The year gives you a cornucopia of options to accompany the many changes that are affecting the stability of your life. With eclipses holding strong in two cardinal houses, life will be anything but dull. Enjoy the blessings of the new birthday cycle and share your optimistic charm with the world.

PLANETS’ POSITIONS FROM NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

Most of us are hoping for joyful celebrations as the upcoming holiday season approaches. Optimism is in the air along with the feeling of wanting to share our blessings with those we hold dear. Many places and people on the planet could use a dash of Sagittarius’ upbeat philosophy. Global events during the past year have been challenging leaving many individuals feeling leery of travel and risk taking. Don’t let fear or negative thoughts pervade - cancel the pessimistic vibes and embrace a prosperity consciousness.

This cycle starts out with only one retrograde planet, Uranus in Aries which goes direct on December 25 and most affects those born April 4-6. Shakeups may be in the works for those born July 7-9, October 9-11 and January 7-9. A positive vibe from the planet occurs for Leos born August 7-9 and Sagittarius born December 7-9. Look for activity and anger issues to flare from December 6-10 when Mars forms a T-square jolting the energy between Uranus and Pluto in Capricorn. Be patient in relationship dynamics at this time. Pluto in Capricorn is a key planet making hard aspects as we move toward the end of 2015 and look ahead to 2016. Conflicts occur in the first half of the month between freedom-loving Uranus in Aries and structure-bound Pluto fueling the differences between those who want to help humanity and those who want to enact more laws to restrict the rights of others. On a personal level Pluto joins the Suns of those born January 4-6 and moves slowly but surely to manifest change and expose issues until they are fully addressed. Others affected by this transit are Aries born April 2-4, Cancers born July 5-7 and Libras born October 6-8. Consult your astrologer for advice on managing the disruptions that are unfolding if your birth date is among those cited. The intensity occurs over the next 1-2 years.

As we move into the days right before Thanksgiving Venus and Mars occupy Libra lending a social vibe and adding camaraderie to relationships. Be on the lookout for a few control freaks and don't let them micromanage your life. Take some time to enjoy a good movie, show or other entertainment venue and have a few hard laughs to break up the tension. Stay busy on the 25th to work through the Full Moon tension and clear the air for a harmonious Thanksgiving Day. If you were born with Mars in Libra or have key planets in that sign look for a high level of energy through the end of December. Some of you will be racing to the finish line or initiating quick-turnaround projects. Get ready for romance if you are single; initiate some quiet, personal time if you are married and want to rekindle the flame. Jupiter now occupies Virgo and affects individuals born September 11-15 through the end of December helping you realize your dreams, plan for your future and welcome a nice holiday bonus. You'll get a boost in one way or another to pay for your holiday gifts. Reach out to someone to rekindle a friendship or offer an olive branch. Make plans to mail packages and greetings early; stay on your gift budget, and plan holiday dinners that create a festive air for sharing food, games and a warm environment. Saturn shows up with a bundle of tension, more responsibility, and the need to develop self-discipline. The planet now occupies Sagittarius where it most affects those of you born November 27-December 4 reminding you of your firm health, relationships and work commitments and the decision to decline unreasonable demands gracefully. Have your chart analyzed if you are in one of those erratic cycles that generate confusion and prevent you from following your game plan. Neptune is in Pisces all month and heavily interacts with the current Saturn in Sagittarius cycle, especially affecting people born February 26-28 and November 30-December 4. You will see the merit in having compassion for others and will use your softer side to keep an eye on your life purpose and your goals. Consider others' perspectives. Examine your thoughts and decide how you really feel about important life concerns; allow yourself to make a decision that creates balance and attracts desirable changes. Increased self-awareness becomes you. Chiron the Wounded Healer occupies Pisces and goes direct in motion on November 28; it is now most affecting the inner psyche of Pisces born within a day of March 6. Let go of any angst and fear you harbor to add joy and inner peace to your life.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

Here are highlights involving people and conditions in the news.

The Final Four on Dancing with the Stars: In a season where competition and elimination take place on the same night, several talented dancers emerged among the celebrity candidates. The show relies strongly on viewer votes to narrow down the choices for the championship round which takes place Monday and Tuesday of next week. Some very talented dancers are gone from the scene - they simply did not get the votes. Who is your favorite among the final four? Is it Bindi Irwin, the high energy Leo paired with Taurus Derek Hough who seems to get high marks from the judges and fans alike? Perhaps it is Aquarius Nick Carter who will take the mirror ball prize with his partner Sharna Burgess, a Cancer; maybe it will be Carlos Pena Vega, a Leo partnered with Witney Carson, a Libra; or Libra Alek Skarlatos paired with Capricorn Lindsay Arnold. Which of these pairs holds the key to success during next week's two-night finale? Stay tuned - all of them are winners!

Jimmy Fallon: The multi-talented host of the Tonight Show has sustained injuries to his hands in recent months; first to his left hand and recently to his right. Jimmy is a Virgo born September 19 and has a chart that certainly got its share of eclipse hits in the last few years yielding both positive and challenging results. The April 4 eclipse in Libra landed on Mercury in his chart - Mercury rules the hands and arms and he suffered a ring avulsion tripping over a rug in his home and catching his ring on a counter top which nearly tore his finger off. The damage was serious and his surgeon performed microsurgery causing him to spend 10 days in the ICU after which he had no feeling in his finger and still has limited mobility with it. His recent injury shows the September 27 eclipse in Aries directly opposite Mars in Libra in his chart. Also in the mix is natal Pluto in Libra on Mars while transiting Uranus in Aries in his solar 7th House of the public was in opposition to natal Mercury in Libra and in hard aspect to natal Saturn in Cancer in his solar 10th house of career. Jimmy was accepting an award for his humor on October 24 from Harvard Lampoon Club when a woman in the crowd suddenly got down on the ground, he did not see her and he tripped over her leading to his latest hand injury. Count on Uranus for the unexpected including accidents. It did not help that an eclipse opposed his Sun on March 20 and will return to the opposition position near his 2016 birthday. Let's send him lots of healing energy so he can entertain us with the wealth of talent in his chart - spot-on impressions of noted personalities, singing, dancing, writing, producing, and the full array of comedic talent that fans have come to enjoy and for which he has won a number of Emmys. Stay tuned.

Politics: Many political and military strategists believe that some of the countries in the Middle East such as Syria, Yemen and Lebanon will cease to exist in the next few years, especially those that were formed by European factions after World War 1. Others believe that Iraq could be gone as well if Iran grabs all their oil. The U.S. President has been in the news quite a bit lately, especially regarding the upcoming summit on climate change, sending troops to Syria to combat ISIS and since the attack on Paris last weekend, an escalated demand to lend support to the European Union to secure borders and stop ISIS from blending in with immigrants who are escaping horrific conditions in their native countries, particularly those from Syria. President Obama, a Virgo with Aquarius rising, recently experienced a Mars return to his natal position at 22 ° Virgo. Mars has a strong connection to military stimulus, wars, combat and aggressive forces and is likely to be pushing his mission for the remainder of his term and probably for another two years. You can be sure he has an uphill battle with Congress over his agenda. These cycles occur every 22-24 months. Vetting of Republican candidates continues with the focus on manipulation of information. Readers ask if Ben Carson is on the level with his claim of violence in his youth since his current outward demeanor appears to be placid. His credibility has been under attack by many sources not only about his youthful displays of anger but also in regard to his understanding of facts, figures and history. I use the chart pattern at birth as the basis for determining the possibility of an edgy past and other issues. He is a Virgo born with Mars (aggression, hostility, passion) and Pluto (subconscious, buried feelings, destruction) conjunct one another. This pattern is one of extreme intensity; once the volcano erupts anything goes until the person learns how to control the emotional garbage that leads to erratic action. Few of his acquaintances would have been able to gauge his trigger points and they probably labeled him a “loose cannon” in his youth. Right now his chart is undergoing activity from the opposition of the September 27 Aries eclipse to his natal Saturn in Libra which highlights limitations in his campaign for the presidency. News emerged this week that his handlers are working with him as much as possible to bring him up to speed on world politics and hint that memory retention issues exist. This week he indicated that he uses Google and Wikipedia to learn about other countries. Saturn will get another direct hit on March 23 and in the interim his natal Uranus in Cancer (the only planet he has that relates to the US chart) is feeling the opposition vibes from Pluto in Capricorn. Momentum is in the throes of change. Bobby Jindal dropped out of the race to the White House; look for others to move away from the competition in the year’s remaining weeks. Donald Trump continues to make headlines that are both favorable to some and divisive to others. Politicos discount the viability of his immigration deportation plan. The Democrats are holding firm with Clinton, Sanders and O’Malley in the bid for The White House. What will happen in the end? Stay tuned.

Bobby Flay: The immensely talent chef, TV star, cookbook author, restaurateur and Food Network host is a Sagittarius born on December 10. Uranus, Mars and Pluto in Virgo on his solar 10th House of career form a hard square aspect to his Sagittarius Sun at the same time that they oppose his Vesta and Chiron in Pisces creating a T-square, a challenging aspect that builds determination and stamina in those who live it, two qualities that can certainly be found in Bobby’s work and entrepreneurial pursuits. His pattern shows disruption in formal education at some point yet that did not stop his success. Many of his TV show affiliations involve competition - Iron Chef, Throwdown, Beat Bobby Flay and The Next Food Network Star. He specializes in Mexican and Southwest cuisine featured in his many restaurants located in New York and 11 other states. Although 2015 brought him some personally challenging financial issues to settle, the presence of Jupiter in Virgo in his solar 10th House will attract new, lucrative ventures in the coming year. He has a great eye for talent and appreciates the contributions of up and coming food champions.

READER’S CORNER

Q. I would like to know what it means that my natal chart shows the majority of planets located in the 4th and 10th Houses. I also have five houses with nothing in them. What gives?

A. You are a Sagittarius with Pisces rising. The pattern in your chart is a definite see-saw meaning in your case that a cluster of 5 planets and asteroids occupy your 4th house in opposition to 6 planets in your 10th House. In your life changes happen in bunches. Since the planets in these houses occupy low to high degrees, activities involving transiting planets and eclipses it may take a few to several years to play out and when the action ends and none of the planets are in play you feel a strong sense of relief. This activity involves positive vibes and transits as well and can affect the situations evolving in the opposite house and the squaring houses. I can see why you contacted me at this time. The new set of eclipses in Pisces and Virgo occupy your 1st House of personality, perspective and activity and 7th House of partnerships, cooperation and agreements yet they are in hard aspect to all of the Gemini planets in your 4th House of home and your Sagittarius planets in the 10th House of career, status of life and family and ambition. All 4 of these houses are considered action zones. These are cardinal houses and activity in them is intense, assertive and powerful calling for attention to detail even though the signs involved are mutable. You won't be able to chill. You can feel excited and enthusiastic one minute and like you are being hit by a truck the next when a powerful transit hits. On top of that Saturn moved into Sagittarius so you will have plenty of evidence or emerging situations that arise regarding restrictions that affect one or all 4 of these houses. Neptune in Pisces is on your Ascendant now and affects other mutable planets in the houses we are covering. The outcome is that your life undergoes significant change in career, family, residence, outlook, relationships and lifestyle. As for 5 houses with no planets, that pattern occurs when you have large clusters of planets in fewer houses and is normal. Activity in those empty houses is not as important in this lifetime. Empty house cusps have signs and affiliated planets called rulers so I look at your chart to see where the ruler planet falls to give me an idea of how that planet works in your life. Stay positive, focused and go with the flow.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CONSIDERING A SHOTGUN STYLE HOME: As a Sagittarius born December 1 you are experiencing the presence of transiting Saturn in your sign, a planet that plays a leading role in real estate purchases. This transit suggests that you carefully select your future home to maximize peace and contentment. You mentioned wanting a Feng Shui friendly property and indicated you were advised that a shotgun style is not a good choice. That statement is generally true since the front door of a shotgun home is directly opposite the back door making it possible to see all the way to the back of the house and outside when you open the door. In Feng Shui the front door represents your wealth and when you open it your goal is to have the positive chi/wealth circulate throughout the house with no blocks and with no hard exit point. If you open your door and the energy/wealth travels in a straight arrow right to the back door, it like saying "in one door and out the other" so none of the energy of prosperity remains in the house. In some cases the house becomes an expensive resource sink. You can correct this problem before you move in with careful placing of a decorative screen or construction of a partial wall mid-way through the house to offset the view of the back door. Best wishes in finding the perfect home.
