LIBRA'S BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS: Happy Birthday, Libra! What you know about relationships could fill books and you cherish family, friends and associates by staying in touch with them. Yours is the second air sign in the Zodiac and Venus rules your sign. You are partnership-oriented and have a strong affiliation with the 7th House of romantic, business, and professional connections, roommates, the public in general, advisors, counselors, diplomats, doctors, lawyers, other experts, and your shadow self. With Venus as your sign ruler many of you seek careers that give you the freedom to put your social and diplomatic skills to work. You provide courteous and thoughtful service to clients and customers and have a knack for organizing events or heading up social functions. Creativity is a strong trait for Libras many of whom enjoy artistic pursuits or those that involve the use of your hands. Libra is either a big fan of the Internet or avoids most types of Web communications and networking. Time saving devices appeal to the tech savvy, especially those Smart phones and downloadable APPS. Libras are sensitive about their flaws and will tune out messages that seem too critical. One of your best assets comes to life when you learn to listen to what others have to say; many of you will have rewarding careers in the field of consulting, coaching, teaching and psychology. You are at your best when in learning mode and feel good about absorbing new information which you internalize to bring out your best qualities. Things to work on include creative avoidance, indecisiveness or procrastination. Be sure to solve relationship problems to avoid festering feelings. Tension can be problematic so be sure to exercise to work out the stress. Libra rules the kidneys, pancreas, lower back and urethra. This year the Sun enters your sign on September 22 at 10:21 AM EDT and leaves on October 22 at 7:46 PM EDT.

Your birthday year starts out with Mercury going direct in Virgo in your solar 12th House on September 22. Jupiter moved to your sign on September 9 in your solar 1st house of action, independence and passion and remains through October 10, 2017. Take advantage of the benefits Jupiter brings in offering opportunities to expand your prospects, explore goals, travel and take classes in desired topics. If single you will have lots of admirers or your significant other will be more flirtatious than normal. Just watch spending; otherwise life is good. Saturn in Sagittarius moves through your 3rd house of communication, equipment, education, siblings, neighborhood activities, contracts, and mental outlook. Aspects keep you hopping if born October 4-16 with Saturn traveling in positive aspect to your Sun. In the 3rd House and in Sagittarius you could find the neighborhood in transition - people moving in and out right now and community leaders may be recruiting volunteers. You may travel around your local digs a bit more often due to schedule and interest changes. Many of you may opt out of social media outlets after receiving too much unwanted mail. Watch what you post to avoid controversial feedback. Don't fall for some of the "unfriend" notices - scammers may be looking for your links. For some of you Saturn here demands overtime work or moonlighting. Take time to enjoy TV and movies. Uranus in Aries opposes your Sun and contacts the solar 7th House of Libras born October 8-23 during 2016-17. Certain relationships bite the dust or are in some state of upheaval. You could undergo lifestyle or relationships changes. If you are at all a procrastinator, you may experience sudden shifts in dynamics with others that just occur so quickly you have no idea they are headed your way. After the dust settles you may have to give some thought to clean up after the storm. Many are preparing for new responsibilities in the career realm or making changes to your daily routine. You will learn much about how others behave and express themselves during the year ahead. Continue to grow and learn about people in your ever-changing circle. Neptune in Pisces contacts your Libra Sun in 2016-17 if you are born September 29 - October 7 in your solar 6th House of work, health, daily environment, exercise, co-workers, pets, schedules, and nutrition. The work environment and the players in it are strong factors in how you approach your work, solve problems and wade through vague policies and procedures. In the year ahead some of the confusion is going to find release through reorganization, restructuring and giving archaic processes the boot. If we are talking about people at work - some go and some stay but not without tweaking thinking patterns. Home is another area that comes under scrutiny. Smooth sailing is around the corner if you plan ahead. As I said last year, see what a win feels like. When Neptune passes through the 6th House, some Libras will crush on a co-worker if unattached. Seek advice from a professional to fine tune your goals. Elusive Neptune makes things look too good to be true; plow through the fluff and get to the truth. Pluto in Capricorn in your solar 4th House of home, parents, family structures, family in general, base of operation, domestic affairs, real estate and home improvement matters resonates strongly with Libras born October 7-15 in 2016-17. As a member of a Cardinal sign you continue to feel the vibes strongly as will Cancer, Aries and Capricorn in terms of these themes. Household change prevails in your base of operation -- living spaces, family dynamics, property care, renovation and real estate matters are likely to dominate. Again you have to deal with not only Pluto but Uranus in Aries making noise from your 7th house of the public and relationships. Pluto slowly cuts to the core and helps you address your fears, look at your emotional makeup, dissolve secrets and give you the passion to make critical decisions in areas you have buried deep in your psyche. Many Libras are in the process of undergoing major emotional adjustments through losses of important people in your lives. Now it is time for renewal and healing. Purge some of the physical baggage and acquire new goods that lighten your spirit. Intervention may be a vital part of your change. With the 4th House involved, life can be in a demanding cycle for family members as well. Stay positive and objective. Enjoy the rebirth in your home base via major renovations or a refreshing coat of paint -- it is very invigorating.

Eclipses last from 6 months to a year while their influence plays out. I am covering the last two eclipses of 2016 in this section since they occurred this month and will influence your chart through February 2017 and beyond. Sometimes you get a feel for what eclipses can do in your chart weeks before they take place. On September 1 a solar eclipse occurred in Virgo in your 12th House of the unconscious, hidden matters, behind-the-scenes activity, regeneration, mystical matters, psychic phenomena, charity, visiting the sick, widows, orphans, or secret enemies. When this eclipse landed it promised the discovery of new or unknown information that is coming to light. The disclosures may involve a few or many parties; some info revolves around people who are ill or in hospitals or places of confinement. It also helps you go within and meditate or seek personal space. For certain Libras you could be tempted to leave your home or have an affair if other factors are present in your chart. You could also spend time working on goals and your future. Many Libras get in touch with the gift for intuiting the truth. It influences your chart strongly through February 26 and through August 2017. Last week's September 16 eclipse was a lunar eclipse in Pisces and occurred in your solar 6th House of work and personal environments, health, pets, co-workers, business or home organization, mental health, fitness and food. This eclipse showcases major work environment activity occurring since March and sheds light on the distribution of tasks. If you are in supervisory position, you may be counseling staff, scheduling training or evaluating efficiency. Colleagues may be major internal clients needing guidance. Neptune is also present so you may have to cull out behavior or poor working habits that are slowing productivity. For those not employed this eclipse points to getting a clean bill of health and changing habits via exercise and nutrition. Some will buy a pet for companionship. The first solar eclipse of 2017 occurs in Pisces on February 26 in your solar 6th House of health, daily environment and routines, pets, co-workers, mental outlook, and sense of organization. This eclipse may influence your personal energy patterns and points to a good time to have a checkup. The eclipse aids in goal achievement and encourages consistency rather than daydreaming; journal for success and internalize affirmations. Enjoy this new beginning and direct your efforts to a meaningful change - career, job, retirement, studies, a different employer, the healing or metaphysical arts, or a nutrition plan that gives you vital energy. If you are born on or around October 3-5 the influence is very strong so, get ready to act. The first lunar eclipse of 2017 occurs on February 10 in Leo in your solar 11th House so you get a chance to work on your affiliation with associations, groups, organizations, friendships and your personal goals. Those of you born October 14-16 experience a very significant year in terms of leadership opportunities, personal enjoyment, relationships with others, major lifestyle changes, travel, and commitment to emerging initiatives. Important revelations come to light regarding associates. Others realize that saying yes all the time puts you in a bind and it interferes with life balance, something very dear to a Libra. Remember, these eclipses don't care what you are doing; they just land in your life, and have a way of shaking up routines rather quickly and unexpectedly. The third eclipse of 2017 occurs on August 7, a lunar eclipse in Aquarius, and falls in your solar 5th House of recreation, vacation, sports, children, romance, creativity, risk-taking and entrepreneurial ventures. You'll travel with partners, relatives and friends and dislike taking in the sights alone. If you are a career advisor, you have a big task ahead with introducing new techniques to interns as well as seasoned employees. You may even be involved in acquisition of a new computer system if not at work then for personal use. Those of you bitten with the love bug have reason to stay cautious if engaging in on-line romance; meet only in safe places for short dates. The last solar eclipse of 2016 occurs in Leo on August 21 and is visible in north America. This one occurs in your solar 11th House of friends, groups and professional connections and is a reminder of what you started in February and still want to finish. If you have broken ties with organizations or minimized activity with friends it is because you know that new people are emerging. Take advantage of it and discard what is stale and no longer of value. Use diplomacy in breaking off old connections. Accept offers to take the lead or run for office in groups you enjoy. Eclipses here strengthen leadership roles. Don't be surprised if you receive unexpected invitations and stretch your boundaries. Stay in touch with professional, spiritual and medical advisors. Material in this section may apply to those born with a Libra Ascendant or planets.

Famous Libra birthdays include: Mickey Rooney, Bruce Springsteen, Barbara Walters, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Michael Douglas, Christopher Reeve, Heather Locklear, Will Smith, Olivia Newton-John, Meat Loaf, Shaun Cassidy, Brigitte Bardot, Gwyneth Paltrow, Janeane Garafalo, Mira Sorvino, Naomi Watts, Hilary Duff, Stacey Kiebler, Bryant Gumbel, Fran Drescher, Jenna Elfman, Tony Shaloub, John Lennon, Bruno Mars, Johnny Mathis, Julie Andrews, Jimmy Carter, Donna Karan, Lorraine Bracco, Kevin Richardson, Emeril Lagasse, Ashlee Simpson, Neve Campbell, Sting, Tommy Lee, Alicia Silverstone, Susan Sarandon, Paul Simon, Kate Winslet, Elisabeth Shue, Yo-Yo Ma, Simon Cowell, Chevy Chase, Matt Damon, Sigourney Weaver, John Lennon, Luke Perry, Hugh Jackman, Luciano Pavarotti, Kelly Preston, Carrie Fisher, Amber Rose, Paul Simon, Ralph Lauren, Usher, Sarah Ferguson, Suzanne Somers, Tim Robbins, Jean-Claude Van Damme, John Lithgow, and Jeff Goldblum.

SEPTEMBER 22-OCTOBER 22 PLANETS

This cycle highlights Mercury going direct in Virgo early on the 22nd and giving you the signal to take action on important decisions you have put on hold since August 30th. From the mail I received I learned that several of you had Mercury delays and mix-ups with insurance matters, medical procedures, vehicles on the fritz, missed phone calls, misplaced keys, and weather delays. Hopefully you are back on track and ready to sign agreements. Watch for fallout from the September eclipses if you have planets at Virgo 9° or Pisces at 24°. Some receive happy surprises or the go-ahead to resume cherished plans. Mars in Sagittarius livens up the charts of fire signs Aries, Leo and Sagittarius and lends passion to pursuits. It's a great time for inspiration and brainstorming. Jupiter moved to Libra on the 9th and affects early degrees of the sign mostly for those born September 22-30. Get your goals on the table and look for sales for items you are ready to buy. Venus is about to move rapidly through Scorpio from September 24th through October 18th so don't be surprised if passion for people, places and events is in the air. Plan wisely for fall getaways. Saturn is in Sagittarius where it remains until December 2017 and most affects individuals born December 2-6; Aries born March 30 - April 3 and Leos born August 2-6 also get a positive boost in direction while those born February 29 - March 4 and September 2-6 feel a need to scrutinize proposals, manage added responsibility and take good care of your health; energy patterns fluctuate. Sagittarians can turn a plan into a reality to start living your dream. The U.S. chart is undergoing strong vibes related to attacks in a variety of cities and volatility related to the upcoming election due to the hard aspects between Saturn and Neptune traveling the heavens. Mars and Neptune aspects influenced flooding, contamination and sewage backup in hard hit zones. Stay aware.

As we begin this Sun in Libra report Chiron is retrograde in Pisces all through the end of the cycle and most affects individuals born March 10-12 who experience powerful deep level mental and physical healing as they let go of fear and embrace courage. Address what holds you back, to free up energy and enjoy life. Go ahead and sigh in relief. Uranus is retrograde in Aries and visits the Sun of those born April 10-12. Everyone, especially the cardinal signs should check your chart for planets in aspect to 22-23 degrees of Aries for areas of vulnerability. During this cycle Uranus opposes the Sun and creates challenges with Pluto in Capricorn. You'll feel the shakeup deeply in whatever houses the aspect appears yet it will serve as a wakeup call to correct what is out of balance in your life. Don't make drastic changes without analysis of the facts. Assess your future and consider new options. Uranus helps you navigate through the blind spots. Where are you too rigid? If you stay stuck, maybe this transit will set you free. Schedule time with a trusted advisor for some strategic insight. Neptune is in its natural sign Pisces in retrograde motion at 10-9 degrees through the end of this cycle and affects individuals born February 27-29. Look at your chart - wherever you have these Pisces degrees that part of your life is in need of attention and leads to a breakthrough if you focus on a plan. Work or home base can be focal points along with critical relationships. Those with water sign ascendants around 9-10 degrees or the Sun at 9-10 degrees (Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces) receive insight via memory and spiritual forces; ditto if your rising sign is earth. Show a little more compassion to others in need of support without letting them become co-dependent. On a positive note, enjoy films, the arts, music and mystery while the transit passes. Look for more stability in future months. Pluto turns direct in motion in Capricorn on September 26 at 11:01 AM EDT on the Suns of Capricorns born January 4-7. The rest of us should look at any planets or houses where we have 14-15 degrees of Capricorn. The closer the planet is to a conjunction (around the same degree) the greater the importance. Several of you may have had heavy-duty burdens to process this year. The days around the 15th - 22nd of October are intense because Mars will be in Capricorn on Pluto which brings great energy and stamina yet also generates tremendous anger that can be problematic if it goes unchecked. On a personal level, deal with your anger issues; on a global level, look at the hostility shown this week by the perpetrators of the New York, New Jersey and Minnesota bombings. Globally we continue to see changes taking place in attitudes regarding political, safety and social practices. Be clear and go with the flow.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

Readers have sent in a mixed bag of questions regarding celebrities like Ryan Lochte, Dancing with The Stars contestants (coverage next month although watch Laurie Hernandez, James Hinchcliffe, Kenny “Baby Face” Edmonds, Terra Jole, Jana Kramer and Marilu Henner), America’s Got Talent winners, the possibility of a war on U.S. soil (upcoming eclipses could be a factor in the year ahead), and political outcomes. Here is this month’s sampler.

Ryan Lochte: The Olympic medalist created global flak when he concocted a story about being robbed at gunpoint in Rio during the Olympics. Ryan is a Leo born on August 3 in Rochester, NY, with several Leo placements and his Leo Sun in direct square to natal Uranus, often the signature of conflict with authority figures when triggered by transiting planets. Saturn hit his natal Uranus during the games and the incident cost him his good name and several lucrative endorsements. Shortly after the Olympics, Dancing with the Stars announced he would be competing on Season 23. The very first week protesters disrupted his performance on the dancefloor further igniting the Uranian chaos that is present. Hopefully, he can channel the spontaneity of the planet into creating memorable dances with his partner Cheryl Burke.

Political Picture: We’re coming down the stretch; it’s time to hold the debates and see what plans for the nation are in the cards for the presidential winner. Readers asked about Kellyanne Conway’s birthdate. She is born January 20 on the Capricorn/Aquarius cusp in Hammonton, NJ (time unknown) and joined the Trump campaign last month. Her chart is popping with Virgo/Pisces eclipse energy and she is in it to shake up the status quo. Still another birth time emerged for Hillary as astrologers compete to figure out the outcome of the race based on new information. Stay tuned.

America’s Got Talent (AGT): This show continues to be highly successful having just completed Season 11 with some of the most talented performers ever featured in a single season. Judges: Simon Cowell, a Libra born October 7; Heidi Klum, is a double Gemini born June 1; Mel B is another Gemini born May 29; Comedian Howie Mandel is a Sagittarius born November 29; Host Nick Cannon is a Libra born October 8. Season 11 Winner is a Capricorn born January 15, 12-year-old Grace VanderWaal a brilliant singer and songwriter who has been compared to Taylor Swift. The remaining top 5 contestants included: The Clairvoyants, 1st runners-up Thommy Ten and Amelie van Tass who also realized a dream come true; they too will be performing at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas. Spot #3 went to outstanding magician and NFL long snapper with the Philadelphia Eagles, John Dorenbos, a Cancer born July 21; 4th place Brian Austin Crum, a pop singer with a powerful voice from San Diego, CA and charismatic crooner Sal Valentinetti, a Virgo born September 13 finished in the 5th spot. No doubt all of the top 10 performers will achieve fame in future months.

READERS' CORNER

Several readers responded to last month's "Corner" in response to the information on timing a move and real estate and asked for more. Several readers sympathized with the man whose fiancée did not want to invite her mother's significant other to their upcoming wedding and said he should wake up to his partner's selfishness before the wedding. This month I received several questions regarding world conditions and people in the news as well as an inquiry about an article I wrote about "9/11."

Q. A colleague of mine told me that you wrote a 9/11/01 article for Llewellyn some years ago. I would like to know how that came about and how I can get a copy of it. It is a topic dear to my heart especially since the terrorism in the world is escalating. Thank you.

A. The day is forever etched in my mind as well. Thank you for writing. The article you cite was called "Astrology Looks at a Changing World" and appeared in the 2003 Llewellyn Moon Sign Book. I suggest you contact Llewellyn to purchase this book as they usually have previous issues in their inventory. The article is way too long to fit in this space so I will provide you with some of the details. I was actually scheduled to write a different article for the 2003 Moon Sign edition but when I returned from being stranded on 9/11 and discussed what happened with my editor she asked me to write an article about the event instead. I'm honored I could do it.

On September 11, 2001 I was living in northern Virginia about 10 miles from Dulles Airport. On that beautiful perfect Tuesday morning I was headed to the airport to board a plane for Denver where I would then make a connection to Las Vegas to meet my sister, Amy for a 3-day reunion. Everything was working smoothly at the airport, in fact my United flight took off early, something that rarely happens. But how was I to know that the World Trade Center had been struck moments before and I would not know the details for several hours as my plane, along with all the others stranded on flight paths, would be ordered grounded and sent to airports with available landing options. Eventually my plane landed in Indianapolis after circling the airport for more than an hour and I was not able to get home for days because Dulles airport was one of the last airports to reopen after the tragedy (I and a fellow passenger eventually drove home once rental cars became available because our flights were canceled every day while we passed the time in an airport hotel).

Background: In the summer of 2001 I began to see an Arab man in my meditation routine. I knew this figure was a clue to something that would affect my life, but as I usually do, I just wait for events to unfold knowing the pieces will fit together. The Monday before the terrorist hijackings (September 10), a client phoned to ask me whether she ought to drive her own car to New York City that weekend or book a rental. She was concerned about whether her 10-year-old vehicle could withstand the trip since her passengers included her daughter and grandchildren. After consulting the ephemeris and her natal chart transits, I told her I didn't feel there was anything wrong with her car but advised her to have it serviced anyway. I told her I did see another type of problem involving mass transportation in New York City and that it would somehow influence her trip. Too close for comfort? Read on. My client, the owner of an insurance agency (Eighth House of Death and Estate Matters), also knew that I was flying out of town the very next day via Dulles Airport and wanted to catch me before I left. Later on we would have some very interesting chats. Another client of mine in Colorado related that I told him shortly after George W. Bush emerged as the President that our country could go to war the latter half of the year. You can be sure he contacted me in September after the attacks on our Nation.

My theory is that several planets had a hand in the unfolding horror, but I was particularly drawn to the behavior of transiting Neptune right before the attack at the time of the September 2nd full Moon in Pisces. I also looked at transiting Mercury and the degree caught my eye because it was in an esoteric degree that gives me the chills anyway. It translates to "the dawn of a new day reveals everything changed" according to Dane Rudhyar, a renowned humanistic astrologer. Whenever this degree appears in the charts of my clients by progression or transit, some aspect of that client's life undergoes a drastic change. Very few individuals in the astrological community actually narrowed down the attacks by Osama Bin Laden's handpicked crew to that infamous day, but many saw the astrological conditions unfolding. I salute those who linked this fateful day to a disaster similar to Pearl Harbor. I was not one who knew the actual day or the horrific extent of events that would occur. My astrology-based suspicions, aided by my gift of intuition, were that our powerful country would emerge on the world stage under very unusual circumstances with Saturn and Pluto opposing each other in the US chart's 1st and 7th Houses (I use the Gemini rising chart for July 4, 1776). I also felt the Cancer-Capricorn eclipses in our 2nd and 8th money houses would influence new spending bills, our country's debt load, the stock market, and redefine the options for employment in government and the Nation as a whole. I doubt that much could have been done to prevent the attacks even though many of us were studying the astrological aspects. All the systems of detection and internal watchdog agencies seemed to fail in the art of surveillance and suppression of dissidents. Intelligence forces missed out on coordinating critical information and connecting the puzzle pieces. Perhaps world history needed to be written so that people on the planet could rediscover their purpose, evaluate complacency, and find new resources for healing.

Thank you to all who sent questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed Virgo's issue and welcome your feedback once again.
