ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to LR on winning the February drawing; March's winner will be announced on March 31 and will receive a $10 discount coupon to use toward a consultation or report. Readers who schedule an appointment of one hour or more from March 20 through April 19 are eligible for a drawing for a $10 discount coupon. Internet security continues to be a problem for many contacts. Several readers reported experiencing some of the conditions I have shared in this section in recent months and indicate they are grateful for the alerts. Update your security software and clear your browser and do not fall for pop-up or e-mail scams that say your system is not up-to-date. Check with the security you have in place before you download any software updates. March madness continues with phony messages, tax links, health insurance inquiries, and banking requests. Avoid opening mail from individuals you don't recognize that imply you have ordered goods or placed an item in their shopping cart. Current attention getters say "here is the information you requested." Don't bite and send to SPAM. Say away from phone callers who block their IDs. Thank you to those who have written to share alerts and feedback on personal experiences.

I accept payments for services via PayPal (www.paypal.com) where you can use either credit cards or debit cards directly from your checking or savings account at this secure site. You won't have to risk giving permission to vendors to keep your card information on file and can change the payment method to suit your needs. ## BIRTHDAY HIGHLIGHTS FOR ARIES

Happy Birthday, Aries - it's your time to celebrate! Your sign's symbol is the assertive Ram. You roam the world as an action-oriented Cardinal fire sign starting the new cycle of the Zodiac. With your superb initiative and an abundance of energy, you create plans and implement them in record time. Many Aries-born individuals have a prominent spot in the world this year with unpredictable Uranus in your sign until 2018. Anticipate disruptions, transitions and the desire to take charge of your life by implementing important goals. The Sun enters your sign on March 20 at 6:29 AM EDT and leaves on April 19 at 5:27 PM EDT. Expansive Jupiter in Libra is currently moving through your 7th House of partnerships, the public, spouses, roommates, advisors and professional associates, consultants, and significant others until October 10 when it moves to Scorpio and your solar 8th House of partnership assets, money you owe, sex, birth, death, rebirth, regeneration, depth perception, psychological insight and inner worlds. While in Libra, you may be more generous toward loved ones and connections you meet at work or in other professional settings. If you are single, you could meet a perfect new partner; if attached you may be tempted to stray with all the new people you meet this year. While Venus and Mars are opposite Jupiter, the opportunities expand; when Jupiter moves to Scorpio, you have a new set of dynamics in the mix and will be taking serious steps to change your life. Relationships get a workout for the rest of the year. Enjoy the enhanced quality of life. Lofty Saturn in Sagittarius occupies your 9th House of the intellect, advanced education, resume-enhancement, publishing, writing, religion, spiritual matters and advisors, foreigners, long-distance travel, the legal and medical professions, and in-laws. If your birthday is April 6-20 Saturn connects with your Sun while it is in this sign and is especially meaningful if you are engaged in issues involving a cause, a new career direction, formal or on-line studies or relationships that involve physical moves. Politics could grab your attention and give you the desire to blaze a new trail as an advocate for a better life for the masses. While in your 9th House you may interact more frequently with people of other cultures. At the same time, you may be dealing with letting go of something that no longer works for you. Saturn goes retrograde on April 6 through August 25 most affecting those of you born on that day and the rest of the Saturn in Sagittarius cycle born April 10-20. Any pending 9th house matters such as financial and legal are ready to manage so that you have resolutions by December 16. Those of you born April 12-19 have Uranus in Aries on your Sun and in your solar 1st House for the rest of the year. The planet of the unexpected leaves little doubt about shake-ups when it pays you a visit so get ready for action in unplanned directions. Uranus feels the presence of Pluto in Capricorn in your 10th House and could create a few challenges in the career, family and status sector of your chart. Wherever these planets appear in your chart you will meet with unexpected outcomes.

Although facets of life may change without warning, you are coming out of the worst of it and experience liberation in 2017. Be sure to have your chart checked so that you are prepared to embrace these developments before making major changes. Neptune in Pisces resides in its natural home in your solar 12th House of retreat, secrets, meditation, widows, orphans, inner healing, time alone, mystical vibes, planning, and charity work. From now through the end of the year Neptune connects most with those of you born March 27-April 3 where it puts you in touch with inner feelings and fears, higher mind, developing interests, ESP, intuitive insight and the metaphysical realm. While you may be feeling supersensitive emotionally, you could also be on deck to help those less fortunate who need a calm voice and a good head for providing options and solving pending issues. Mellowing is good for you so you process subtle hints related to change. You may be visiting those who are ill, unemployed, emotionally down or in need of training that leads to a higher quality of life. Dreams may be prophetic about future directions. If you have natal or transiting planets in the 12th house make important decisions when the Neptune “fog” lifts so you can make valid choices. Pluto in Capricorn occupies your solar 10th House of career and life status and influences your world related to ambition, authority figures and the status quo. For Aries born April 4-11 the year elevates any outstanding issues that need resolution in your career and family status sector - tension builds. Find ways to suppress the urge to have a loud, erratic confrontation and settle clashes amicably that have been simmering. It's time to move away from the angst and refuse to get sucked into conflict. For some Aries family matters need attention and cannot be ignored if you are born around the above dates. If a move is the answer, do your homework first. Workplace competition is a factor at the job scene. Only you can mitigate the influence of manipulators. Uranus in Aries near your Sun adds to your desire to make meaningful moves. Letting go brings desired freedom.

You are under the influence of the first lunar eclipse of 2017 which took place on February 10 in Leo at 22° & 28' in your solar 5th house of fun, games, dating and social life; risk-taking, sports and recreation. Many individuals start businesses when an eclipse strikes this house or create a new product, find an attractive mate or take inspiring journeys. What will it be for you - the strongest part of this eclipse lasts until August 21. The first solar eclipse of 2017 occurred 2 weeks later on February 26 in Pisces at 8 degrees 12 minutes in your solar 12th House of the psychic mind, self-discovery, inner healing, secrets and planning behind the scenes, work with charities and meditation. This one lasts through August. Several scenarios unfold depending on the relationships of planets in your chart: secret romances which you should consider with impact in mind if you are carrying on at work, hiding from a partner or taking risks with jealous competitors. Be sure to heal from mental or physical stress since Chiron in Pisces occupies this house and gives you a chance for honest reflection. If you do want to let the cat out of the bag regarding undisclosed plans, it could happen in the next six months. A full moon lunar eclipse arrives on August 7 in Aquarius in your solar 11th House of groups, friendships, organizations, professional memberships, goals, dreams and plans at 15° & 25'. In the following six months or slightly before you could receive unexpected news about a friend, your company assets, plans in the works or humanitarian enterprises. Once you recover you will be motivated to make changes accordingly and either join groups or run committees that address common interests. If you have plans to take classes related to the spiritual or metaphysical realm this is a good time to do so; ditto for advanced business courses. Where does 15-16 degrees of Aquarius/Leo occur in your personal chart? Eclipses are supercharged Moons, so very dynamic announcements occur or you meet new partners, collaborators, or advisors. The last 2017 solar eclipse occurs on August 21, in Leo at 28° & 53' in your solar 5th House of adventure, exercise, dating partners, recreation, risk-taking and social life. When eclipses fall in your 5th house it is time to step up your game and get out of the house for either fitness routines, fun times or finding the right person to enrich your dating life. Married Leos may want to add to the family with a new baby. Those of you with children may spend quality time with them in sports, recreation, hobbies or academic pursuits. Stay true to current partners and life is rewarding and enriching. Two more eclipses occur before your next birthday. The first occurs in Leo on January 31, 2018 at 11° & 37', a full Moon eclipse in your 5th House of romance and social life. Anything you started since the August 21 eclipse gets revisited or bears fruit. You may turn dreams into a reality with an engagement, an impending birth, or plans for a cherished vacation. Children may bring home the gold in terms of school or sports achievements. Grandchildren could enter your world or maybe you retire and start a consulting business. Two weeks later on February 15 a new moon solar eclipse falls in Aquarius in your 11th house at 27° & 08' bringing decisions your way regarding accepting a new job, heading a group, advancing a prototype idea or acquiring seed money from your employer to grow the business. You could find a delightful change of circumstances and impressive new relationships with others. Plans and goals fall into place, yet you are likely to experience adaptations to desired goals based on compromise and clear thinking. Give to the Universe and you will be richly rewarded. Write your wish list at each new moon and see what happens! A variety of emerging interests blesses you. Enjoy!

Famous Aries include: Matthew Broderick, Rosie O'Donnell, Reese Witherspoon, Carl Reiner, Nathan Fillion, William Shatner, Peyton Manning, Piers Morgan, Aretha Franklin, Kenny Chesney, Sandra Day O'Connor, Keri Russell, Michael Fassbender, Cat Cora, Emma Watson, Reba McEntire, Jon and Kate Gosselin, Sarah Jessica Parker, Sir Elton John, Mariah Carey, Fergie, Julia Stiles, Christopher Walken, Vince Vaughn, Ewan McGregor, Giovanni Ribisi, Alec Baldwin, David Hyde Pierce, Eddie Murphy, Robert Downey, Jr., Paul Rudd, Zach Braff, Jackie Chan, Russell Crowe, Robin Wright Penn, Hugh Hefner, Dennis Quaid, Claire Danes, David Letterman, Shannen Doherty, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Emma Thompson, James Franco, Ellen Barkin, Martin Lawrence, Nancy Fuller, Victoria Beckham, Conan O'Brien, and Kate Hudson.

PLANETS IN ARIES' TIME from March 20-April 19

We usher in spring on March 20th at 6:29 A.M. when the Sun moves to Aries and the momentum of the February 10 And February 26 eclipses continue to make an impact on many lives. As we leave March both Venus and Jupiter are retrograde soon to be joined by Saturn on April 6 EDT and Mercury on April 9 EDT. Pluto joins the retrograde gang on the 20th just as the Taurus cycle begins and we'll cover the planet in the next newsletter. These retrograde periods represent reflective times to look over plans, understand more about your needs, decide how to solve problems and reconsider priorities. It is time to build on rather than initiate new plans. Mercury retrograde phases this year spend most of the time in fire signs even though other signs overlap. Mercury goes retrograde in Taurus on April 9 and resumes direct motion the afternoon of May 3 in early Aries where it stays through May 15. You can make the best progress by cleaning out closets, filing piles of material that are accumulating, shredding unnecessary documents, phoning a friend, and biding your time as appointments are rescheduled, canceled or just plain forgotten. Venus went retrograde in Aries on March 4 and is going direct in Pisces on April 15 zipping through late degrees of the sign before retracing its full journey through Aries. Those of you who had the romantic planets working for you are seeing progress in relationships or are in the beginning stages of a new one. Until Venus goes direct watch investments and don't bet the rent that everything you anticipate in close relationships is on solid ground. The 15th is not a good day for your love life or making cherished decisions. Mars spends the next month in Taurus making deliberate attempts to amplify security in finances, business, and personal partnerships. Solutions are likely to be reversed or tweaked later. Take your time. Jupiter is retrograde in Libra and most affects Libras born October 14-9 in that order until the Taurus cycle begins. Jupiter opposes Uranus in Libra now creating unpredictable situations in love and finances, some of it caused by decisions and misinformation in personal, government and legal arenas. When Saturn turns retrograde in Sagittarius on April 6th it will spend 4 months in this stationary motion which ends on August 25. You have reason to reconsider important issues and life-changing decisions that involve family, health, real estate ventures, your career, life status and health. The news about health care, retirement benefits, pensions, social security and debt resolutions is inconsistent at best sending mixed signals to the Fed that are not sure raising the interest rates is the best move but will do it anyway. Uranus in Aries is currently making a nice transit to Saturn in fire sign Sagittarius and will benefit those with fire and air planets. While the unpredictable occurs in several ways with Uranus creating havoc, Saturn will be there to point out beneficial rules and regulations in response to public outcry to leaders that are unable to solve matters that require long-term solutions. Expect to hear about several Ad Hoc committees, meetings or boards as well as the Congress convening to focus on strategy. Expect reversals and flip-flopping and raised eyebrows in allied countries. Uranus blazes trails in fiery Aries especially for Aries born April 12-19 and for fire signs Leo and Sagittarius born with the Sun at 23-24 degrees of their signs or planets at 23-24 degrees of fire signs. Aries may experience the most action or disruptions in their lives during this cycle. Neptune in Pisces most affects those born March 1-4 during this time while it makes harmonious connections to Venus in Pisces for most of April and to Pluto in Capricorn. This cycle favors romantic chemistry, solving pending problems and researching facts or medical information. Those most impacted by this cycle have planets at 11-13 degrees of Pisces, Cancer and Scorpio. Wherever transiting Neptune appears in your chart, the house calls attention to areas of confusion, spiritual insight, psychic impressions and matters involving liquids either the drinkable type or those that cause problems via leaks or toxins. Many of you experience romantic vibes from special people; touch leads to healing. A day after this forecast period ends Pluto goes retrograde in Capricorn at 19 degrees on April 20 making its annual 6-month journey into retrograde territory and coming up for air on September 28. Many individuals feel the vibes in advance. Cardinal signs

Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn feel the impact on planets around 19 degrees of their signs. Those born January 8-11 experience the shift on their suns. Now you have a chance to heal your mental and physical body based on Pluto's powers of regeneration. Release those damaging and toxic thoughts, focus on health issues that need attention; therapy is good for the soul. Individuals born March 14-17 have Chiron in Pisces on their suns. Be sure to show compassion to those in need of an ear or a morale boost. By supporting others, you tap into your own wounds and buried feelings and have a critical opportunity to let go of inner pain. The Wounded Healer helps you release baggage and frees your spirit. If your life seems overwhelming, schedule a consultation to see what is affecting your chart. Signs high on the radar screen this month are Pisces, Leo, Aquarius, Capricorn, Cancer, Sagittarius, Gemini, Libra and Aries. Fixed signs Taurus and Scorpio get a few boosts and a few bumps from the current eclipse cycle.

LUNAR/SOLAR CYCLES

March 20: Sun enters Aries at 6:29 AM EDT; 1st day of spring

March 23: New Moon in Aries, 10:57 PM EDT, 7° ♈ 37'

April 11: Full Moon lunar eclipse in Libra, 2:09 AM EDT 21° ♎ 33'

April 19: Sun Enters Taurus, 5:28 PM EDT

PEOPLE, PLACES AND TOPICS IN THE NEWS

THE EMPEROR IS WEARING NO CLOTHES: Readers were prolific in the past month especially regarding the activity and behavior in early days of the Trump Administration. Comments came from Republicans, Democrats, Independents and from individuals. Some said they voted for Donald and are disappointed that he is not making America look great. Some writers sent laundry lists of their objections and at the top of the list was lack of truth. Are the inconsistencies there to create confusion, to mislead or to get attention 24/7? Accusations fly from the lips of the Twitter Czar from dawn to dusk and in between with no filter and never an apology for hurting others even when the accusations are proven false. Now he seems to be using impromptu news conferences to grab the mike and share inconsequential news with the public. Few individuals believe the President has a health care plan ready to trot out that is going to meet the needs of all people. Republicans are distancing themselves from the inadequacy of what the plan contains. Projections for coverage estimate that over 24 million will have no coverage in the next few years. Key staff have that "deer in the headlights" look as they report on instant nonsense that is rebutted and refuted within minutes and which they clearly don't believe as they struggle to deliver his message. Have you heard the one about how your microwave is spying on you? The press has been badly and unfairly attacked.

One never knows which group or individual is going to be the Battered Ram du jour skewered with barbs and basted with bitter herbs to cast doubt on others' credibility and integrity. Even after numerous rebroadcasts validate Trump as the originator of his statements, he goes into denial and blames someone else for his remarks. Last night he blamed a Fox attorney for being his source in accusing Barack Obama for secretly wire-tapping him. Our Allies stand back in confusion over what they see coming out of the land of the free and the brave. If you saw yesterday's poorly run press conference with Angela Merkel, you'll note her bewildered face as she listened to another rambling attempt to grab the limelight and keep the lie going. The press is becoming increasingly direct in searching for the truth and wading through double-talk.

Meanwhile reports have surfaced on the anticipated expenses for security at Trump Tower that will cost taxpayers over $168 Million a year and New Yorkers are reporting on the continuous traffic snafus for blocks on end. The federal government is set to be chopped to pieces with those agencies who protect our food supply, health, veterans, air quality, waterways and shorelines set for either extinction or budgets so slashed that quality work will be impossible to perform. Accelerated funding will go to the military. Is war on the agenda to bring economic security to the country? If you check out the proposed budget, you can be sure it will not fly in its current state. America is so much better than this. Stay tuned to the news and leading edge comedy shows for daily updates on crazy-making.

Talented actor, comedian, writer, producer and sometimes singer Eddie Murphy is reportedly penning a sequel to his 1988 movie hit, Coming to America. We'll have to watch for further news and a backer for this enterprise since sequels can be hard to sell. He has kept fans laughing for years and appreciative of his depth as an actor in films like Dream Girls. Eddie is an Aries born in Brooklyn, NY and turns 56 on April 3. Eddie visualized a career in show business from early childhood and successfully pursued his dream on TV in Saturday Night Live, The Royal Family, MTV Music Video awards and The PJs. In addition to Coming to America, he starred in more than 40 hit films including Trading Places, Beverly Hills Cop, The Golden Child and The Nutty Professor. With several planets and asteroids in innovative Aries (Vesta, Ceres, Sun and Venus), Eddie exudes a creative flair which meshes nicely with his show business-oriented Leo placements including Uranus; dramatic South Node, Chiron, Pallas and Mercury in Pisces (music, the stage, emotion) and Mars in Cancer (love of movies revolving around family life - check out his film titles) in aspect to each asteroid and his Sun. The February 10 eclipse activated Uranus in his solar 5th House of enterprise, entertainment and risk-taking. No doubt he will get a big boost in the limelight and draw new fans to his circle.

Cat Cora is an Aries born on April 3 in Jackson, MS. This Iron Chef and master of Mediterranean (Greek), Southern, and Fusion cuisine turns 50 this year. The Greek influence stems from her paternal grandfather and father who were both restaurateurs. She is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi and Culinary Institute of America who opened restaurants in the US - San Francisco and Orlando; and in Singapore. Cat has appeared on numerous Food Network shows including Iron Chef America, Kitchen Accomplished, Food Fighters, The Best Thing I ever ate and numerous appearances as a judge on Master Chef, Guy's Grocery Games and Cutthroat Kitchen. Maybe you caught her latest show, My Kitchen Rules on FX this winter which she co-hosts with Curtis Stone. The competition features celebrity couples who use their culinary skills to win the best preparation, presentation and delivery of complete meals that are hosted in a participating couple's home each week. The couple with the lowest weekly score leaves the program until the best pair emerges on the show's finale. This season's winners were Andrew Dice Clay and his wife Valerie Silverstein - who knew? Cat is an Aries born with Saturn in Aries and Black Moon Lilith in Aries on her Sun, the North Node, Pallas and Venus in Taurus, a Pluto/Uranus conjunction in Virgo and Jupiter in the sign of her claim to kitchen fame, Cancer. Based on the planetary transits affecting her chart, Uranus in Aries shook up her world when she and her partner of 17 years divorced in 2015. They had four children together. The current round of eclipses in Leo/Aquarius are affecting her 5th House of romance and 11th of friendships and groups adding new people and plans to her life, possibly more restaurants and additional food-related shows. Jupiter traveling through her solar 7th house of partners expands her options and may present new opportunities in other countries.

READERS CORNER

Fans of Readers Corner wrote mostly about relationships over the past month wanting to know more about compatibility. Perhaps you will relate to one or more of these questions.

Q. I am an Aries born April 5 and my spouse is a Leo born August 7. What can you tell me about our compatibility and the success of the relationship? We have been together 16 years. What works and what does not in your opinion?

A. Thank you for writing. You and your spouse share the harmonious connection of having the Sun trine Sun, one of 7 marriage models based on major aspects that astrologers examine for compatibility. Here the Suns are approximately 120 degrees apart. While harmonious Sun Signs do not guarantee a long or happy marriage, neither do stressful aspects like the square, opposition or quincunx rule out a successful marriage. The ideal scenario is for you to have your charts compared for full analysis. Very few couples use only the Sun Sign to determine compatibility and attraction. I'll cover your Sun-Sign relationship here. Using solar houses, you would have the Sun in the 1st House and your husband's Sun in the 5th House of romance (Leo rules the house) and if his Sun were in the 1st House, the chart would show a fire sign on the cusp of his solar 5th House indicating an attraction for either a Sagittarius or an Aries. Each of you has similar approaches to life, common goals and interests. The sameness can be both positive and passive in that too much similar thinking can be boring and leads to the need for seeking outside interests, not necessarily in the form of other partners although that sometimes occurs. Maybe there are things you just don't like to do together and give each other the space to chill and pursue hobbies or entertainment. You are a Cardinal sign and your husband is a fixed sign, meaning that you may be less tolerant of his faults and vice versa yet the two of you just don't treat them as fatal flaws and often don't address them until you reach the last straw. Usually life just hums along and you don't notice until something adverse comes up and rocks your world. Similar conditions exist when one sign is before or right after the other, the semi-sextile aspect. Two famous Sun trine Sun marriages are between Prince Charles (Scorpio) and Camilla Parker-Bowles (Cancer) and Tom Hanks (Cancer) and Rita Wilson (Scorpio). Note that Princess Diana was also a Cancer born July 1 although her Sun at 9 degrees of Cancer was too early to trine Charles' 15 degree Scorpio Sun the way Camilla's born July 17th does. In your charts, I see that your Venus in Aries is in harsh (square) aspect to your spouse's Venus in Cancer, so you may disagree over spending and luxury items like vehicles, home purchases and certain entertainment types. Tension can be very healing though and lead to a compromise that helps your marriage endure. Congratulations on your 16 years together.

Q. I am a 57-year-old Aries (on March 29) and want to work at least 10 more years. I am considering a job change. What should I look for in the next position; qualities of the environment or traits in a boss and what should I avoid?

A. DESIRES: You'll want a good listener for business partnerships or work conditions; someone to bat "clean-up" after you start a project since you like to generate ideas and don't like all the detail work; bosses who appreciate your innovation and opportunities to demonstrate innovation and leadership; frequent promotions; new audiences; bosses who delegate responsibility allowing you to release your creative problem-solving style and opportunities for success via a clear career path. DISLIKES: Work environments where you feel stifled; sticking to timelines when you haven't thought about the detail or plans are sketchy; stale ideas; smothering bosses with a helicopter mom style; a feeling of underachievement (which can sometimes lead to indiscreet love affairs to compensate for the sense of failure). Another dislike is being denied a raise or a bonus when you feel you've earned it; balancing the books (you can be lax in keeping expense records or at least recording your activity when it occurs.) If you are not in a relationship, this could be a year where you meet a mate; if you are, it could be a very romantic cycle. Enjoy!

CONFIDENTIAL TO WANTING NEW FRIENDS: Your Aries chart has Uranus near the Sun this year. No wonder you are ready to ditch stale relationships that keep you tied to your work. Too many of them are from your current work place and some contacts appear to be workaholics. Since you indicated that you find it necessary to turn down certain invitations because you are bored, or because your companions cancel in favor of working overtime, do some inventory on what qualities you prefer in friendships. Aries appreciate friends who give you tickets to ball games or concerts when you need a break from routine as well as those who have plenty of patience to cope with your short temper. Find fun-lovers like you who enjoy parties, host them, or initiate adventure. Move away from wet blankets or those who lack the courage to try something new or won't make decisions about where to go for a meal or a movie. Uranus contacts your Aries Sun in the 5th House of social life creating a variety of disruptions that will shake up the status quo. Do something different each week, accept invitations and be ready to move in new directions. Transiting Saturn in Sagittarius in your 3rd House on your natal Moon (communication, local travel and your mind) helps you break out of the rut and eliminate the restrictions that are around you. Have fun!

Thank you to all who sent in questions and comments about last month's newsletter. I'm glad you enjoyed the Pisces issue and welcome your thoughts once again.
