GEMINI and THE YEAR AHEAD: Happy Birthday, Gemini! This birthday year begins with your sign ruler, Mercury, direct and speeding through in Gemini until June 1 when the communicator planet enters Cancer for the remainder of your sun sign period. Gemini rules the chest cavity, hands, arms and shoulders and lungs in the conversation-oriented 3rd House of brothers, sisters, cousins and other relatives as well as neighbors, students, classes and workshops, communities, education, transportation (all forms including commuting, purchasing and repairing of vehicles and methods you choose for travel), media interests and networks, (phones, computers, faxes, Internet, social networks), writing and the diverse facets of your mind, especially how it works and the impact it has on your mental state. You proudly display mental versatility a key asset. The 3rd house of the chart, regardless of Sun sign, describes your intellect, how you think, the way you converse with others or form creative relationships. Gemini's natural ruler is Mercury, and its symbol is the Twins making you simultaneously an air and a mutable sign displaying Yin and Yang characteristics. You have outstanding deductive skills that help you analyze problems while sharing your ideas with others. Those who know you enjoy your charming sense of humor and the volume of information you recall. You are extremely sociable, enjoy traveling, hosting events, and love to mingle while telling your stories and providing the critical people-to-people contact that recharges your batteries. Your ideal career gravitates toward flexibility letting you move around at will. Boredom and redundant tasks make you restless, especially if they take too long to complete. This year the Sun enters your sign on May 20 at 8:37 PM EDT and leaves on June 21 at 4:24 AM EDT when it enters Cancer.

Mercury in Gemini in your solar 1st House helps you formulate creative thoughts, render quick decisions, and work on new ideas or projects to keep new energy in the pipeline. During downtime you prefer to catch up on old business, pending chores, correspondence, complete reports, finish a book, pay bills, or return phone calls. New people and social initiatives claim your time while Venus occupies Gemini through May 18. Mercury conjuncts the Gemini Sun from May 20-25 and favors prosperity, romance, and intense socializing and invitations. Enjoy the Memorial Day holiday festivities and the lunar grand trine of the Sun in Gemini, Moon in Libra, and Uranus in Gemini that brings spontaneity and desirable social bonding to the celebrations. Avoid controlling types as you move into the last weekend of May. The last week of May hosts the Full Moon in Sagittarius on May 31, an excellent time to review and revise your goals and solve problems. Venus in Aries and Mars in Taurus are harmonious the first week of June. Mercury will be retrograde this summer in Cancer from June 30 through July 23.

Venus in Cancer arrives on May 18 as does Mars in Taurus sending a romantic message to members of these signs while they align with Jupiter in Cancer.

Respond to invitations and abundant email and text messages. Give serious thought to making holiday plans for late June and July and to booking a desirable vacation spot. You'll enjoy a nice vibe from the sextile between Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

Money or gifts come your way. Mars in Taurus occupies your solar 12th House through June 28 and provides opportunities to work on evolving plans with professional associates or collaborators. Take advantage of networking opportunities if you are seeking new employment, joining a group, or participating in political campaigns. If you are involved in humanitarian work, compete for a leadership role or look for a new position in a fundraising initiative or as a Budget Officer. Meet with friends during down time. Accept a lunch invitation that offers surprising new information. Steer clear of conversations that are unproductive. During the Memorial Day holiday weekend, the Moon enters Libra, conjuncts Mercury, sextiles Neptune in Aries, and trines Pluto in Aquarius. Socialize! Enjoy invitations to festive events.

Romance is in the cards for many Geminis. Schedule medical tests and make changes in health practices and eating habits. Be vigilant from June 20-25 while Jupiter is square Saturn and could aggravate a health condition. With Jupiter in Moon-ruled Cancer through June 30, activity is strong in your solar 2nd House of assets, income, salary, self-development, and personal budget. If you are interested in a physical move or would like to purchase a new residence, update your resume and start networking. Writers among you may start a new book, an important report, or advertising campaign. Enjoy summer adventures with loved ones. Work on goals. If you are a manager, interview qualified IT candidates. The shortage of workers continues in 2026 even though many more employees have lost jobs since the fall of 2025. Find candidates with strong budgeting, forecasting, and reporting expertise. With Jupiter getting ready to move to your 3rd house of communication through the end of 2026 in Leo, the sign of the magnanimous heart, the options for contracts and exciting new work multiply for the rest of the year. You may begin to feel like your cup runs over when job offers easily come your way. Choose wisely from your wish list and apply for positions that offer the work, benefits, relationships, and travel you desire. The planet of expansion is direct until December 12 when it moves retrograde in Leo until April 12, 2027. Look over papers and legal transactions carefully while early Jupiter in Leo opposes early Pluto in Aquarius. The Aries planets complement your fire and air planets. Saturn is moving rapidly through Aries, racking up degrees in the sign from the start of the Gemini Sun period through June and in July until the 26th when Saturn turns retrograde in your solar 11th House in Aries and goes direct in this sign on December 10 during its 2-1/2 year stay in the department of associates, friends, groups, goals, and professional affiliations. The planet of limitations will create a number of delays, misdirected messages, or mix-ups. Date nights, parties and socializing are likely to occur at the beginning of some of these late May to early June weeks; ditto for the week of June 8. Romance that leads to an engagement or setting a wedding date is likely for certain Geminis born from May 21-June 5. Those born from mid to late June make plans in 2027 and enjoy dating in this cycle. Have fun! Look for a few challenges related to associates, dreams, friends, groups, goals, and leadership pursuits. You may be undecided about whether to work with your current organization or move on to better offers. Stimulating work appeals to you; if it has lost its luster, you are likely to seek more rewarding work assignments.

An erratic work cycle since the beginning of 2025 has attracted you to new possibilities due to a shift in direction or leadership because work goals are changing and the new direction may not be clear. Loss of contracts may affect the numbers of employees who are available to perform work. Seek rewarding assignments or accept a temporary work detail that makes full use of your outstanding communication skills. If you write or perform, you could be intensely involved in publishing, teaching, stand-up comedy, an MC role for a noteworthy conference, or writing assignments that showcase your flair for innovation. Speaking additional languages beyond your native tongue could be a much-appreciated asset. Eclipses in your solar 10th and 4th houses could be a big factor in career decisions in late 2026-27. Look for changes in the hierarchy in your workplace. With Uranus firmly in Gemini now in your solar 1st House for the next 7 years, your psyche will enjoy excitement, new beginnings, adventure, and intellectual pursuits. This spontaneous planet will move just under 6 degrees through September 10. This year's transit affects those of you born May 20-23 for the rest of your birthday cycle. While located in the First House of enterprise, individuality, passion and personal expression, this chaotic planet alternates between making you feel wildly liberated or completely exhausted from fending off disruptive behavior that comes up without a clear sense of purpose. Consider writing a humorous article for an event you'll be hosting or for your drama group if you are a member. An abundance of meetings could be on the agenda in the next year. Your boss could tap you to run or MC them. Keep your innermost thoughts private while in the company of testy personalities. Uranus could bring you multiple job offers, close encounters with difficult personalities, changes in direction regarding assignments, shifting the emphasis of publications for which you have responsibility, or a change in format that affects key elements of your work. Disclosures may reveal secret affairs, how you are revamping your physical appearance, or important facts about your health. Examine what is not working; then let go so you can focus on unfolding plans. Avoid those who are emotional drains or create confusing conditions that may be dominating your life. Uranus in Gemini goes full steam ahead in Gemini once it turns direct in February 2027. Prepare for the new cycle in Gemini you are manifesting. Challenge your love for inner creativity while you work on completions. Monitor your mental health and take stress breaks when feeling overtaxed. Scrutinize ongoing changes. Contact your astrologer to examine conflicted periods you encounter to get a sense of timing for executing goals. Neptune in Aries falls in your solar 11th House of professional affiliations, plans, groups, goals, networks, dreams, and attractive leadership opportunities. What issues have risen to the top of your priority list in 2026 once Neptune left Pisces on January 26? Your Gemini sun is likely to experience a period of clarity and eagerness that allows you to participate in new ventures with transiting Neptune in Aries in charge for the next 14 years. Those born May 20-24 experience the biggest impact as you move into a new agenda with this dreamy and psychic planet in 2026. Since the position of Neptune is still in the teaser stage through December 2026, it will not travel over many degrees (0 to 4 degrees).

Neptune will be retrograde from July 7 through December 12 when the dreamer planet goes direct and moves forward adventurously in 2027. This cycle shows that your eleventh and fifth houses are likely candidates for change. The transit puts a reality check on you if you have been in a fog regarding career and life transitions or if your line of authority experienced chaos while in your 10th house. Later in 2043 the transformative planet finally exits Aquarius from August 31, 2043-January 19, 2044. This year Geminis born on the above May dates, will finally see Pluto embracing its new home in Aquarius for a long residency in this politically driven house. The planet of renewal turned retrograde on May 6 (in Aquarius) and goes direct on October 15, 2026. ### May 20-JUNE 21 PLANET ACTIVITY

Sky Patterns: As the Gemini cycle starts, note that only one outer planet is retrograde, Pluto is at 5° Aquarius which shifted on May 6. Mercury moved direct in Gemini on the early morning of May 17 where it stays through June 1 and then enters Cancer, through the remainder of the Gemini cycle before going retrograde for a very long cycle in Cancer on June 29, moving direct on July 23, and heading to Leo on August 9. The engaging Messenger of the Gods is very playful and versatile during this cycle. The first weekend of late May-June 1 is perfect for socializing on Saturday and enjoying romance on Sunday. Take advantage of meeting new people, dating, and event planning during the first two weeks of June. Avoid stressful arguments involving politics. Wrap-up unfinished tasks so you can enjoy the Memorial Day holiday on May 25. Return phone calls and answer text messages. Enjoy positive exchanges. Venus starts this cycle in home-oriented Cancer and moves to socially active Leo on June 14. Venus in Cancer conjuncts Jupiter in Cancer the first 13 days of June offering you stimulating, conversational date nights, humorous input, and witty exchanges. The Full Moon in Sagittarius on May 31 favors the Suns of early born air and fire signs. Make room for others who wish to enter your circle now. True love is close by if you are looking! Mars is in sensitive, discriminating Taurus through most of the Gemini cycle, moving to Gemini on the afternoon of June 28 in trine aspect with early Uranus in Gemini. Expect increased productivity while Mars is in hard aspect to transiting Pluto in Aquarius through May 26. Work out differences related to finances, office protocol, and business ethics. Avoid conversations that sound excessively rigid. Put your energy toward working on personal preference or goals while Saturn and Neptune stimulate harmony. Honor fathers in your life on Father's Day, June 21, when Venus, Uranus, Saturn, and Neptune give you a nostalgic feeling and appreciation of family. The Summer Solstice occurs on June 21 marking the first day of the summer season. Embrace the lightness and opt for clarity in conversations, messages, and social requests. Enjoy an abundance of cheerful exchanges. Jupiter's move into Leo occurs on Tuesday, June 30, after spending part of May and most of June in Cancer. The Sun moves to Cancer on June 21, a day filled with diverse planetary activity. You'll wonder how you will fit everything that comes up into one beautiful day. From dawn to dusk you will embrace both love and surprising challenges. Don't dwell on past hurts. Smile and others smile back. Romance brightens your world once you pick up the affectionate vibe from the Sun in Cancer. Those of you born in the signs Cancer, Virgo, Scorpio, or Pisces have benefited from Jupiter's transit in Cancer. Lift your spirit to acknowledge the fine points about existing relationships. Make no major decisions if you are missing important facts. While Saturn in Aries is direct at 11-13 degrees this month, it most affects Aries, Gemini, Leo, and Sagittarius born on these particular degrees of their signs. Check where you may have planets at 11-13 degrees of these signs. This period may be blissful if your alignments are positive or taxing if complications are in the mix. Check with your astrologer. This is a good time for Geminis to book an appointment. Saturn in Aries travels ahead of Neptune in Aries, at a slower pace, 3-4 degrees of Aries through the end of the Gemini cycle. This intuitive planet is moving toward finding workable solutions for serious current problems with a spiritual undertone hoping to manifest greater peace of mind. Negotiate pending contracts as you will have greater success while Mars is in Taurus energizing fine points and important clauses in documents. Keep your cool and check facts. Choose entertainment venues that please close family and friends. Enjoy successful outcomes. Uranus in Gemini, a mutable sign travels to 1-3 degrees of the sign in forward motion most affecting Gemini born May 20-25 this month. Affected beneficially are mutable signs Gemini, Libra, and Aquarius, and fire signs Aries and Leo born the first 3 degrees of their signs. They may experience a nice trine aspect that stimulates their earning cycle, optimism, and emerging benefits. Mutable signs Virgo and Pisces may face challenges since both undergo eclipses in their signs during 2026. The fixed sign Scorpio deals with an Inconjunct aspect to their Suns revolving around stressful aspects that have hits from Aquarius and Leo planets and high hopes of resolution. Members of these signs may be experiencing conditions that shift the status of their world and could do so unexpectedly with little or no warning. Life may manifest several unplanned turns over the next year that affect relationships and the course of their lives. This planet of the unexpected, and transformational Pluto in Aquarius, will affect those born in early degrees of fixed signs. Remain calm when stressful circumstances occur. Uranus transits also affect weather patterns like hurricanes, tsunamis, tornados, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, lightning, floods, and thunderstorms that produce structural damage, as well as fires, auto, plane or train crashes, and unleash threatening war games (Russia, Ukraine, North Korea, South Korea, Israel and Palestine, Iran, China, Afghanistan, the U.S., and Syria,) that affect the lives of citizens in the US and abroad. As I write this passage, the U.S. is indicting Cuba's Raul Castro for murder over downing of planes in 1996. Expect continued increases in all types of insurance costs for your medical needs, vehicles, or home. Uranus just completed a 7-year cycle since it began its journey in Taurus in 2018. The impact has been harsh, affecting the economy, key financial conditions, inflation, the price of fuel, values, market stability, employment and work conditions and unearths instability in global relations. Since the beginning of 2025, revolutionary change has been taking place in the US and other allied countries. Notice countries with strong Taurus placements - they made the news through the end of April 2026. Events have had far-reaching consequences. Enjoy harmonious energy that comes your way on Father's Day and create loving reunions with family and friends. The next Uranus retrograde cycle starts on September 10, 2026, and ends on February 8, 2027. Neptune in Aries is in direct motion this month and began its journey in Aries on January 26, 2026. This psychic planet goes retrograde on July 7 at 4 degrees and remains retrograde until December 12, 2026, at 1 degree of Aries. The planet joins the Suns of Aries born April 21-25 or planets at 1-4 degrees of Aries. Neptune in Aries is getting used to her new territory and makes an impression on early degree fire and air signs. The early part of the sign transition to Gemini favors bonding with new contacts, staff, or friends (May 20-25). After the Memorial Day holiday, schedule business meetings with professional colleagues and spend leisure time on the following weekend with family and friends enjoying favorite entertainment and recreation. Be aware of your soul's fondest desires as you develop your creative consciousness, attract romance, embrace spirituality, and internalize metaphysical subjects. Value all that is harmonious and beautiful. Be cognizant of those who spread outright lies, create embellishments to save face, those who procrastinate or stall for time, manufacture information, or take credit for actions that were not theirs to claim at all. Truth tweekers arise in some corners of your life during the week of June 1. That's the downside of Neptune. Benefits favor those born January 20-24, March 21-25, May 20-24, July 23-26, September 23-26, and November 22-26, the fire and air signs. Cancer, Libra, Capricorn and Pisces may experience challenges if born at 1-4 degrees of their signs with a hard square or opposition aspect. What have you noticed? Locate the natal house Neptune occupies in your chart and analyze the facts. Uranus and Neptune are sextile in Gemini and Aries all month. If you are a Gemini, celebrate your birthday with family and friends. You both love humor. Embrace Neptune's love of harmony and assimilate facts as you expand your knowledge of current conditions. Visualize fondest dreams materializing. Spend time with cherished relatives and close friends. The New Moon in Gemini is conjunct your Sun on June 14. Neptune in Aries brings happy surprises your way if born the first few degrees of Aries or Gemini. Enjoy the celebration. Make a date or plan a get-together with your favorite person! Pluto in Aquarius turned retrograde on May 6 and currently resides at 5 degrees of Aquarius where it stations all month long. Check the house where slow-moving Pluto resides in your chart to review current issues and roadblocks that may need your attention. Solve related problems during this transit which currently affects you if born January 24-25, April 24-26, July 25-26 (creates the opposition), September 26-27, or November 24-26, creating a harmonious trine. Pluto moves direct on October 15, 2026. Jupiter wraps up its Cancer cycle on June 29 and promptly moves to Leo on June 30. Look for a bit of confusion since Mercury turns retrograde on June 29 at 1:36 PM on June 29. Rely on Pluto to tackle deep, critical matters and present tough choices for leaders engaged in working intensely to bring economic and physical relief to people who have lost homes, good health, and financial security. Look how quickly life changed for Americans in early January 2025. War zones have become the norm in many parts of the world over the last year plus in countries dealing with constant threats and a shortage of supplies. Many in the US are experiencing those shortages and loss of jobs. Those of you born around 5 degrees of fixed signs Aquarius, Taurus, Leo, and Scorpio could feel both energized and anxious by this transit. What is your personal experience of the early Pluto transit? Focus on family and home to find new solutions to change the status quo. Proactively start to shed old baggage by assessing conditions, clarifying plans, and carefully executing strategies. Adjust priorities, raise expectations, and show compassion for others. Carefully analyze messages you receive. Show your integrity. Evaluate emotional reactions and conditions surrounding national and local politics. Chiron in Aries is direct at 28-29 degrees and moves to 0 Taurus on June 19 relating most to Taurus born April 20-21. This Chiron transit most affects those born April 18-19 in this cycle. Examine the truth that sits right in front of you. Face it now as the heaviness leaves your aura and embrace the freedom you desire. Walk tall and feel the joy that reaches your inner core as you complete this powerful inner healing. Emotional clutter is now released. Bravely purge the painful memories that kept you locked in fear. Let go of those reminders of old experiences that are no longer valid. Wisdom adds life to your inner growth. Send anger to faraway places and hug your heart. Welcome the life you desire and earned. Note the house where Chiron is transiting in your chart; this is important in 2026-27 since the house it transits is changing this month! Where will natal Chiron reside in your chart? Be aware of any aspects that occur with transiting and natal Chiron. Conjunctions send wake-up calls to give you courage and set you free. Early born Taurus - get ready. Examine options and release pain that includes obstacles that disrupted your goals, timeline, and desired accomplishments. Take the time to greet old friends. Include family and friends in favorite summer activities. Embrace relaxing experiences. Enjoy abundant fun while healing, too.

Skyrocketing prices on gas and oil, foods, appliances, clothing, insurance vehicles, and travel, continue to astound consumers. A coveted prize on gameshows this year includes a new vehicle, luxury vacations, and cash. Note the makeup of awarded prizes if you watch these shows. Drew Allison Carey: An American comedian, game show host, and actor, Drew is a Gemini, born May 23 in Cleveland, Ohio. He attended Kent State University. After serving in the U.S. Marine Corps, Drew made a name for himself in stand-up comedy moving on to star in his own sitcom, "The Drew Carey Show", and then hosted the American version of the improv comedy show, "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" Drew has mastered many roles as a producer, writer, actor, and host of a variety of shows and movies. He currently hosts CBS's successful "The Price Is Right" and thrives on his affable rapport with contestants who appear on this popular game show excited to compete for a bevy of unusual prizes. ## READERS' CORNER

Thank you for the many messages you sent regarding last month's question concerning a conscientious boss who noticed a change in behavior by an employee who always arrived at work on time but suddenly started coming to work late and took more sick leave than usual. Most readers voted with my suggestion that there might be a new person on the job that she did not get along with or that she did not get promoted to a job she wanted. A few said it could be a personal problem related to her family. Well, it turns out that the employee did not get the promotion she was hoping for and took the outcome as a sign of rejection. Her boss says that she never made an appointment to talk about the job, and he did not think she really wanted it. She is now training the incumbent in the new position. This month's problem relates to an employee nearing retirement age who is interested in finding a new job.

Q. I am a 59-year-old Gemini (on May 29) and want to work another 10 years. I am considering a job change. I can retire from my current position now. What should I look for in the next position; qualities of the environment or traits in a boss and what should I avoid?

A. DESIRES: You'll want a good listener for business partnerships or work conditions; someone to bat "clean-up" after you start a project since you like to generate ideas and don't like all the detail work; bosses who appreciate your innovation and opportunities to demonstrate resourcefulness and leadership; a boss that rewards you with frequent promotions; new audiences, groups, or associates; a boss who delegates responsibility allowing you to release your creative problem-solving style and opportunities for success via a clear career path. DISLIKES: Work environments where you feel stifled; sticking to timelines when you haven't thought about the details or plans are sketchy; stale ideas; smothering bosses with a helicopter parent style; a feeling of underachievement (which can sometimes lead to indiscreet love affairs to compensate for the sense of failure, or too many breaks spent in the coffee shop). Another dislike is being denied a raise or a bonus when you feel you've earned it; balancing the books (you can be lax in keeping expense records or at least recording your activity when it occurs.) If you are not in a relationship, this could be a year where you meet a mate; if you are looking for love, it could be a very romantic cycle. Enjoy!
